Nuts & Bolts Training for Victim/Witness Hosted by the Wisconsin Department of Justice Office of Crime Victim Services

Presentation Title Safe at Home Address Confidentiality Program

Learning Objectives Following my presentation, participants will:

- Know the basic information about the Safe at Home program and what makes a participant eligible
- Recognize the benefits and limitations of the program and how participants use their assigned address in a real-world context
- Understand how Victim/Witness professionals can ensure a Safe at Home participant's address is protected

Speaker Bio

Keeley Crowley is the Director of Victim Service Programs in the Office of Crime Victim Services with the Wisconsin Department of Justice. She has over 25 years of experience working in the anti-sexual violence movement, including providing direct services to survivors. She is the Site Coordinator for the Wisconsin Sexual Assault Kit Initiative, coordinates the state's Sexual Assault Response Team Strengthening and Enhancement Project and the Attorney General's Sexual Assault Response Team and supervises the Victim Resource Center and the Safe at Home Address Confidentiality Program. Ms. Crowley previously served as the director of a community-based sexual assault program and as a Program and Policy Analyst - Advanced with the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Prison Rape Elimination Act Unit.