CRIME VICTIM COMPENSATION PROGRAM APPLICATION INFORMATION

An application may be filed by, or on behalf of, a person who was injured or died as a result of the crime. The Program may help with certain expenses such as medical or mental health bills or other losses directly related to the crime and covered by the Program. Personal property losses including cash, or “pain and suffering” claims cannot be reimbursed by the Program.

WHAT TO DO

- Please print clearly in ink. Separate applications must be completed for each injured victim.
- Enclose copies of crime-related medical bills received so far and send any other bills as they are received. The Program requires that the bills be itemized. It is the applicant’s responsibility to document the losses. If there is insurance, Medical Assistance or other coverage sources for costs of medical or mental health expenses, a provider from within the provider group or that the network will reimburse, must be used. If those sources are not used first, the Program may not be able to consider reimbursement of those costs.
- Send the completed application to the Crime Victim Compensation Program as soon as possible. Do not wait until court is over or until treatment is completed.
- The application must be signed by the injured victim or by the parent or guardian if the victim is under 18 years of age. If the victim is deceased, the application may be signed by a family member or by the administrator of the victim’s estate.
- Provide all information requested by the District Attorney’s Office to them in a timely manner. The Crime Victim Compensation Program Application does not need to be sent there.
- Return the completed application to the address listed on the bottom of this page. The applicant will receive a letter from the Crime Victim Compensation Program acknowledging the receipt of the application. Call the Program if a letter is not received after two weeks of submitting the application. Notify the Program of any changes in address or phone number. If you have any questions, please call (608) 264-9497 or 1-800-446-6564 (Toll-free). Keep this information sheet for your records.

REMEMBER

- The crime must be reported to law enforcement within 5 days of the date of the crime and the victim must cooperate in the investigation and prosecution of any known suspects. The application must be filed within 1 year of the date of the crime. However, there are very limited circumstances in which this requirement may be waived. If the crime was not reported within 5-days or claim was not filed within 1 year, attach a written statement explaining the reason for the delay.
- Any money received from other sources such as restitution, lawsuits, insurance settlements, etc. must be repaid to the Crime Victim Compensation Program for crime related expenses paid by the Program.
