

2011 Attorney General's Summit on Public Safety

"Targets and Threats: Preparing Wisconsin"

Wednesday evening, June 29, through Friday afternoon, July 1, 2011
Chula Vista, Wisconsin Dells

A Wisconsin teenager holds his classmates and a teacher hostage before taking his own life. Marinette Police Chief Jeff Skorik will discuss how the situation unfolded in the social studies classroom at Marinette High School last November.

The focus of terrorists on U.S. soil has shifted from large scale attacks to smaller, but harder to detect operations. Within the past year, law enforcement officials have thwarted bombing attempts in Portland, Oregon, and at Times Square in New York. Homeland Security officials believe there are terrorist operatives in this country that could strike with little or no warning. Attendees will hear about the latest Homeland Security threats and from a number of Wisconsin law enforcement administrators who will talk about the threats police officers face each day.

Bouncing back and managing stress. Faced with traumatic events on a daily basis, police personnel must be able to recover quickly from difficult situations. This year's program will include presentations on the military's resiliency training program and the managing of stress in today's law enforcement agencies.

The 2011 Summit breakout sessions include presentations on Regional Response Teams, Trauma Services at Crime Scenes, Threats Facing Wisconsin Schools and DNA. Assistant Attorney General Dave Perlman will provide an overview of recent court cases and take a Look at Daubert.
