Law Enforcement Specialized Training Fund: Purpose and Goals

Program Description

Law Enforcement Training Fund – Local Assistance Program is a reserved fund designated for advanced and specialized training for certified Wisconsin officers.

Training should:

- Respond to the advanced training needs of law enforcement, jail and secure juvenile detention officers;
- Educate officers on identified training gaps or needs;
- Address community needs and restore a measure of safety and security for citizens;
- Provide for a broad opportunity for all officers to attend to maximize the dollars made available in this training fund.

In addition, DLES has identified the following key areas to achieve:

- Strengthen capacities for collaboration between law enforcement agencies;
- Enhance mental health of officers;
- Enhance cultural competency of officers and reduce racial and ethnic disparity;
- Encourage sustainable training and support for agencies statewide.

Award Information

Funding will be provided by the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Law Enforcement Services. The funds originate from the Law Enforcement Training Fund – Local Assistance Program (state ID/catalog number 455.231). They are administered by the Division of Law Enforcement Services and are intended to provide training opportunities for Wisconsin officers.

The approximate amount available is $250,000. Grant expenditures will be reimbursed directly to the grantee when spending is documented and submitted to DLES and all post-award reporting requirements have been submitted.

Upon application approval, the applicant agency's Project Director will receive paper grant award documents by mail in approximately 30 days.

Submit Applications Using Specialized Training Fillable Grant Application

Applications must be submitted using the Specialized Training Fillable Grant Application document and emailed to the Grant Program Manager. All application will be reviewed by the Specialized Training Advisory Committee under a competitive review process.

Application Components

General Instructions: In order to simplify the application process, we ask agencies:

- Complete application with full details regarding your event and event costs.
- When possible, include a copy of the agenda associated with your training event.

Evaluation Criteria:

Applicants are reviewed and scored based on the quality of their response, the level of detail provided, and their ability to effectively provide the training outlined in the application.

Accepted proposals which pass preliminary evaluation shall be reviewed and scored against the stated criteria based on responses to sections of this Funding Announcement.

Proposals will be scored and graded in the following areas:

Evaluation Criteria	Points
Training Event Summary:
Needs Description	20
Training Design*	50
Training Impact	20
Funding Request Narrative	10

Extra points may be given for addressing one or more of the DLES Priority Areas, with clear descriptions and detailed responses.*

Questions on what is expected in each section can be directed to Stacy Lenz at 608-616-2338 or lenzse@doj.state.wi.us

Application Sections:

1. Main Summary

This page asks for information about your agency and the individuals responsible for the application and grant award. When identifying individuals involved in this grant, you may not list the same person as project director and financial officer.

Name of Applicant – is the name of the Agency or the name of the Association hosting the training event.

The Financial Officer is the individual responsible for financial activities in your organization while the project director will be overseeing project operations.

The Project Director will be the main point of contact for all grant related communications.

Title of Training – the name of your training event.

Training Hours and Location of your event.

Total Training Hours – number of total hours trained

The Anticipated Number of Officers to be Trained – how many do expect to attend

The Target Audience to be Trained – who do you expect to attend the training

2. Training Event Summary (90 total points)

Please describe the primary goals and objectives of the training request and how the dollars you are requesting are needed to support this training event.

A. Statement of Need – (20 points)

Tell us about the specific training needs that your project is trying to address.

Describe:

- the service area for the project; and
- the population to be served, including geographic location, and population.

Identify any gaps in training and explain how the proposed project will complement and not duplicate existing training:

- Describe the barriers or challenges that officers have in this topic area;
- Describe the gaps in training and how this training will address this need.
- Describe any previous or current efforts to address the needs the proposed project addresses, and the effectiveness of those efforts.

Training Details – Applicant must include the following information:

- Title, location, and dates of your proposed course/conference.
- Supplemental information including brochures, flyers, agendas.

B. Training Design – (50 points)

Tell us about how you will address the needs identified above. The application must provide a clear link between the proposed activities and the need identified in the “Statement of Need” section above.

Please include the following information in your narrative:

- A description of the target audience for whom the training is intended.
- A statement of the major skills, knowledge or attitudes this training will provide as well as what specific skills and learning outcomes will attendees achieve during this training.
- The number of hours of training and the number of officers anticipated to attend the training.

C. Project Implementation – (20 points)

Tell us about the organization hosting the training and the people who will be providing the training and instructing.

- Identify and demonstrate that the individuals and organization(s) involved have:
 - Capacity to address the stated need and can successfully implement the proposed project activities.
 - Expertise necessary to appropriately train law enforcement.
- Internal capacity:
 - What opportunities will this training provide to build internal capacity to address the needs you have identified?
 - What do you need assistance with?

- Partnerships:
 - Will this training expand or complement your work to build partnership among agencies and expand collaboration?
 - Have you reached out to local, regional, or statewide partners to join in this training opportunity?

3. Funding Request

Complete a training budget using the following categories. For each category used, enter a justification that describes how the items in the category will be used during the course of the training event. It is important that you include specific details for each budget line items, including clear cost calculations.

Travel/Training: Any travel and/or training costs associated with this training event. Only actual expenses will be reimbursed. (Please note: Travel and training for contracted employees does not go in this section. These expenses should be itemized under “Contractual”).

Supplies/Operating: Any supplies/operating costs associated with this training event.

Consultants/Contractual: Provide costs associated with individuals or entities providing services such as instructors. For each consultant enter the name, if known; service to be provided; hourly or daily fee; and estimated time. List all expenses to be paid in addition to their fees (e.g. travel, lodging, meals, etc). Show the basis of computation for each service requested.

Other: please be specific as funding is limited to instructional fees but there may be fees that do not align with the categories listed above.

4. Funding Request Narrative – (10 points)

The Applicant’s budget should display a clear link between the specific project activities and the proposed budget items. The funding narrative should explain how the applicant estimated and calculated all costs, and how these costs are necessary to the completion of the proposed project.

5. Eligibility Requirements:

All applicants must be in good standing with the Law Enforcement Standards Board. Any outstanding compliance concerns will be subject to review for ineligibility.

6. Application Review and Award Criteria

All applications must be submitted on or before the deadline and will be screened for completeness and compliance with the instructions provided in this announcement. Each grant application is reviewed by the Specialized Training Fund Advisory Committee in collaboration with the Office of the Attorney General.

Grants are awarded based on statewide needs for specialized training and available funds.

7. Post-Award Reporting Requirements

Please review your grant award and reporting requirements. You will need to provide the following within 30 days from the last day of the training event:

1. Class roster for each training event.
2. Agenda/Lesson plan (minimally listing topics, presenters and hours of instruction).
3. An invoice addressed to DLES for reimbursement of actual expenses incurred as well as supporting documentation (invoices, receipts, etc). The invoice must also include the grant number.
4. Number of Law Enforcement/Jail officers trained.

Please Note:

- The class roster and lesson plan should be attached to the email with the invoice to the Specialized Training Program Manager.
- Email these documents to Stacy Lenz at lenzse@doj.state.wi.us
- Any questions, please contact your Program Manager, Stacy Lenz at 608-616-2338

Application Review and Evaluation Criteria

All applications must be submitted on or before the deadline and will be screened for completeness and compliance with the instructions provided in this announcement. Incomplete applications may not be considered. This application will be reviewed by a panel of experts representing the law enforcement community in partnership with the leadership at the Wisconsin Department of Justice. Applicants should assume that the reviewers have a background in the issues and do not require a basic explanation. The review panel recommendations are combined with DLES staff recommendations and are submitted to the DLES Administrator. All final grant award decisions will be made by the Attorney General in collaboration with the DLES Administrator. DLES will also consider past project performance when determining subgrant awards. DLES reserves the right to adjust, lower, and/or change the application budget and the requested amount of funding at DLES's discretion.

Evaluation Criteria:

Applicants are reviewed and scored based on the quality of their response, the level of detail provided, and their ability to effectively provide the training outlined in the application. Accepted proposals which pass preliminary evaluation shall be reviewed and scored against the stated criteria based on responses to sections of this Funding Announcement.

Proposals will be scored and graded in the following areas:

Evaluation Criteria	Points
Budget Narrative	10
Needs Description	20
Training Design*	50
Training Impact	20
Maximum Points	100

Extra points may be given for addressing one or more of the DLES Priority Areas, with clear descriptions and detailed responses.*

Division of Law Enforcement Services
Review/Appeal Process for Grant Funding Recommendations

An applicant may appeal the Division of Law Enforcement Services' decision of grant funding. The applicant must request a review of the decision in writing. To be timely, a request must be received by DLES no later than 10 business days after the date on the denial/intent to award letter.

The written request should be sent as follows:

Email to:

Program Manager

Stacy Lenz

lenzse@doj.state.wi.us

A request must be signed by an authorized official in your agency and include facts or developments that were not known to you at the time of your original application to the Law Enforcement Specialized Training Fund, which in your view should significantly impact the consideration of your application.

Requests to appeal will not be granted if the information received:

- Merely reiterates or restates information or contentions submitted as part of an application;
- Seeks to revise or amend the original application;
- Makes comparisons with other applicants or applications;
- Disputes policy judgments or discretionary decisions made by the review team in formulating its recommendations.

The Division of Law Enforcement Services will notify the applicant that the appeal has been received and will respond to the applicant within 30 days of the receipt of all information needed to make the decision. DLES reserves the right to review and reconsider all elements of the grant application during an appeal. The Attorney General's Office and the Division of Law Enforcement Services Administrator will review and make final decisions on all appeals.

If the denial decision is rescinded, DLES will discuss the specific scope, activities, goals and budgetary terms of individual projects to be offered grant funding. Such discussions will likely require revision and resubmission of pertinent administrative, programmatic and financial information.
