Charges Filed Following Identification of Human Remains in Adams County

FRIENDSHIP, Wis. – The Adams County Sheriff's Office, Dane County Sheriff's Office, and Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) Division of Criminal Investigation are announcing that Adams County District Attorney Tania Bonnett has filed charges against Robert J. Olson following the identification of human remains in Adams County on Saturday, November 23, 2019.

Robert J. Olson is charged with Hiding a Corpse, Providing False Information on a Missing Person, and Obstructing an Officer.

On, Saturday, November 23, 2019, a hunter came across human remains in a wooded area in Adams County. Law enforcement responded to the scene and the remains were confirmed to be human. The remains were later identified as that of Anastasia N. Evans, age 24, of Dane County.

This is an ongoing investigation. The Adams County Sheriff's Office, Dane County Sheriff's Office, and DCI are assisted by the Adams County Medical Examiner, Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory, and Wisconsin State Patrol.

As in any criminal proceeding, Mr. Olson is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

No further information is currently available. Press inquiries should be directed to DOJ.

A criminal complaint is attached.
