AG Kaul Joins National $86.3 Million Agreement with Mortgage Servicer Nationstar

MADISON, Wis. – Attorney General Josh Kaul joined with 50 other attorneys general and other federal and state agencies to reach an $86.3 million agreement with Nationstar Mortgage. Nationstar is the country’s fourth-largest mortgage servicer.

The consent judgment resolves allegations that Nationstar, which does business as “Mr. Cooper,” violated consumer protection laws during its servicing of mortgage loans. The agreement provides restitution for a variety of harms that were identified in the investigation. Thousands of borrowers had problems when their loans were transferred to Nationstar, leading to foreclosure in some circumstances.

“This agreement provides compensation to borrowers who were harmed by Nationstar’s practices and requires Nationstar to follow standards that will improve service to consumers for three years. Thank you to those at Wisconsin DOJ and DFI whose work contributed to this resolution,” said AG Kaul.

Filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, the agreement provides approximately $79.2 million in relief affecting 55,814 loans nationally. It covers conduct by Nationstar occurring from Jan. 1, 2011, until Dec. 31, 2017.

In Wisconsin, the agreement affects 609 loans for a total of $835,515.69.

The agreement also requires Nationstar to follow a detailed set of rules or “servicing standards” in how it handles certain mortgage loans. These servicing standards are more comprehensive than existing law and will be in place for three years starting on Jan. 1, 2021.

The settlement was signed by attorneys general from all 50 states and the District of Columbia. The state attorneys general negotiated the agreement with the state mortgage regulators and the federal Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, which filed separate settlement documents. The partners also collaborated with the U.S. Trustee Program, a component within the Department of Justice that seeks to promote the efficiency and protect the integrity of the bankruptcy system. The USTP is finalizing a separate agreement with Nationstar to address historical servicing issues impacting borrowers in bankruptcy.

In 2012, Nationstar began purchasing mortgage servicing portfolios from competitors and grew quickly into the nation's largest non-bank servicer. As loan data was transferred to Nationstar, borrowers who had sought assistance with payments and loan modifications sometimes fell through the cracks, the lawsuit alleged. Borrowers in this category will receive a guaranteed minimum payment of $840 as part of the agreement.

Other borrowers suffered damages when Nationstar failed to oversee third-party vendors hired to inspect and maintain properties owned by delinquent borrowers and improperly changed locks on their homes, the lawsuit alleged. These borrowers will receive a guaranteed minimum payment of $250.

A settlement administrator will send a claim form to eligible borrowers in 2021. Nationstar has already provided some of the relief outlined in the agreement.

The agreement also requires Nationstar to conduct audits and provide audit results to a committee of states to ensure compliance with the agreement.

The lawsuit alleged other unlawful acts and practices by Nationstar, including:

- failing to properly oversee and implement the transfer of mortgage loans;
- failing to appropriately identify loans with pending loan modification applications when a loan was being transferred to Nationstar for servicing;
- failing to timely and accurately apply payments made by certain borrowers;
- threatening foreclosure and conveying conflicting messages to certain borrowers engaged in loss mitigation;
- failing to properly process borrowers' applications for loan modifications;
- failing to properly review and respond to borrower complaints;
- failing to make timely escrow disbursements, including the failure to timely remit property tax payments;
- failing to timely terminate borrowers' private mortgage insurance;

- collecting monthly modified payment amounts on certain loans where the amounts charged for principal and interest exceed the principal and interest amount contained in the trial plan agreement.

The parties reached a binding agreement before the commencement of any court action. Thus, the requirements of 2017 Wis. Act 369 regarding court settlements do not apply.
