Update: Officer Involved Death Investigation in Watertown, Wis.

WATERTOWN, Wis.— The Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) is investigating an officer involved death (OID) in Watertown, Wis. that occurred on the evening of Sunday, May 31, 2020.

Law enforcement from Watertown Police Department initiated a traffic stop in Watertown for a burnt-out taillight. Law enforcement had been looking for the subject to question him about his involvement in a domestic incident. During the traffic stop, a taser was deployed, but was not effective. Shots were fired from within the vehicle and officers returned fire. A firearm was found in the vehicle.

Law enforcement immediately began life-saving measures on the subject, and paramedics later transported the subject to a nearby hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries sustained during the incident.

As a result, organ donation was something the family chose to pursue. The organ donation process has been completed today and the family has given permission for this information to be shared.

No law enforcement personnel or other individuals were injured during the incident. The involved officer from Watertown Police Department have been placed on administrative leave, per department policy.

DCI is leading this investigation and is assisted by the Wisconsin State Crime Lab, Wisconsin State Patrol, and DOJ Office of Crime Victim Services. All involved law enforcement are fully cooperating with DCI during this investigation.
