

Survey Results:

Services for people who've been trafficked

May 2013

Human Trafficking Task Force of Greater Milwaukee

With funding provided by Milwaukee Health Department – Office of Violence Prevention

Collected by Claudine O'Leary, Rethink Resources

All results are self-reported by programs. No evaluation was made of any program included here. No endorsement of any program is intended. Community members are encouraged to ask their own questions before seeking services.

Summary

In the summer of 2012, the Milwaukee County Human Trafficking Task Force (now Human Trafficking Task Force of Greater Milwaukee) decided to survey local organizations providing services for people who've been trafficked to better understand the landscape of existing resources. The survey was distributed multiple times to hundreds of organizations and individuals. Participants completed the survey online, by phone, in-person, or on paper. Fifty-two (52) programs responded in a 10 month period. The response shows that Milwaukee already has many programs ready to assist adults and children who've been trafficked. In addition, new programs have started since the survey was first distributed last summer and are included in this survey. More than half of the programs reported their own expertise on human trafficking to be basic, minimal or introductory level. Almost 80% of programs wanted more training. A little less than half of the programs currently screen for human trafficking but many acknowledged reports come out in other ways like social histories. Thirty-four (34) of the 52 programs reported working with at least 1 to over 20 people who've been trafficked in the past 12 months.

Acknowledgments

Each member of the Human Trafficking Task Force of Greater Milwaukee contributed ideas for the survey and assisted in the distribution. The Service Provision Work Group especially assisted in each step from reviewing the data collection tool to the results. Sojourner Family Peace Center donated their Survey Monkey access. Claudine O'Leary took primary responsibility in developing key materials, distributing the survey, collecting the information and compiling this report. The Milwaukee Health Department Office of Violence Prevention provided key funding to sustain and complete this work.

Definitions

The survey used the legal definition of human trafficking from Wisconsin law. The definition was noted at the start of each survey. This meant all minors involved in commercial sex acts or sexual performance were considered to be trafficked. For adults, if those commercial sex acts or sexual performance was compelled through force, fraud or coercion, including controlling someone's drug addiction that was considered human trafficking. All forced labor, where violence, threats and lies were used, including impossibly high debts, was considered human trafficking.

Challenges during the process

The online format was difficult for some, resulting in many false starts. Some people were unfamiliar with basic concepts about human trafficking, like labor trafficking or resources available to those who are trafficked here from other countries. While the survey was designed to collect information about programs that were consciously working with those who've been trafficked; many programs simply wanted to report what standard resources they were willing to offer any community member.

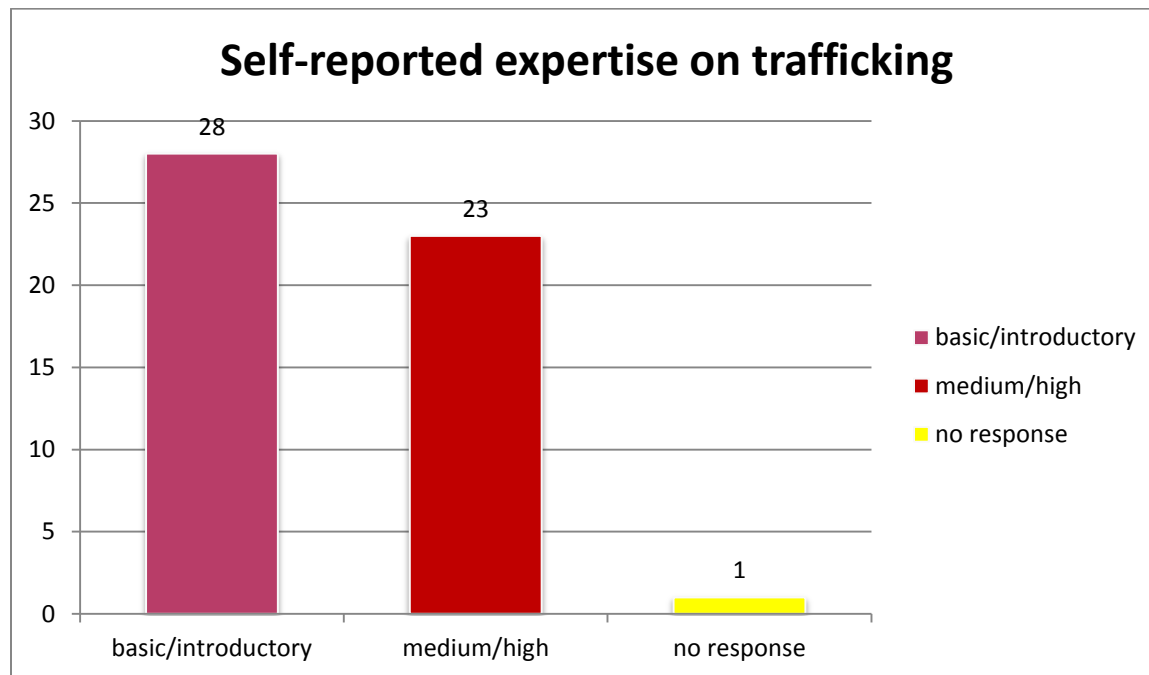

In the future relying on in-person or phone interviews might elicit more complete information or answer questions in the moment. Using the same or revised survey tool might be a good way to find out basic information about programs that are or want to work with people who've been trafficked.

Some limitations of these survey results

It's not possible to determine the effectiveness of these programs from these survey results. It's unknown if these results accurately portray the majority of the programs or if this sample is representative of existing programs. Some programs that are known to work with people who've been trafficked did not respond to multiple requests to fill out a survey. A few programs did not fill out the entire survey or left significant portions incomplete and did not respond to several requests to fill out rest. It's likely that different staff members would fill out a survey differently from each other. It's possible that in reviewing these results that programs would want to change their responses.

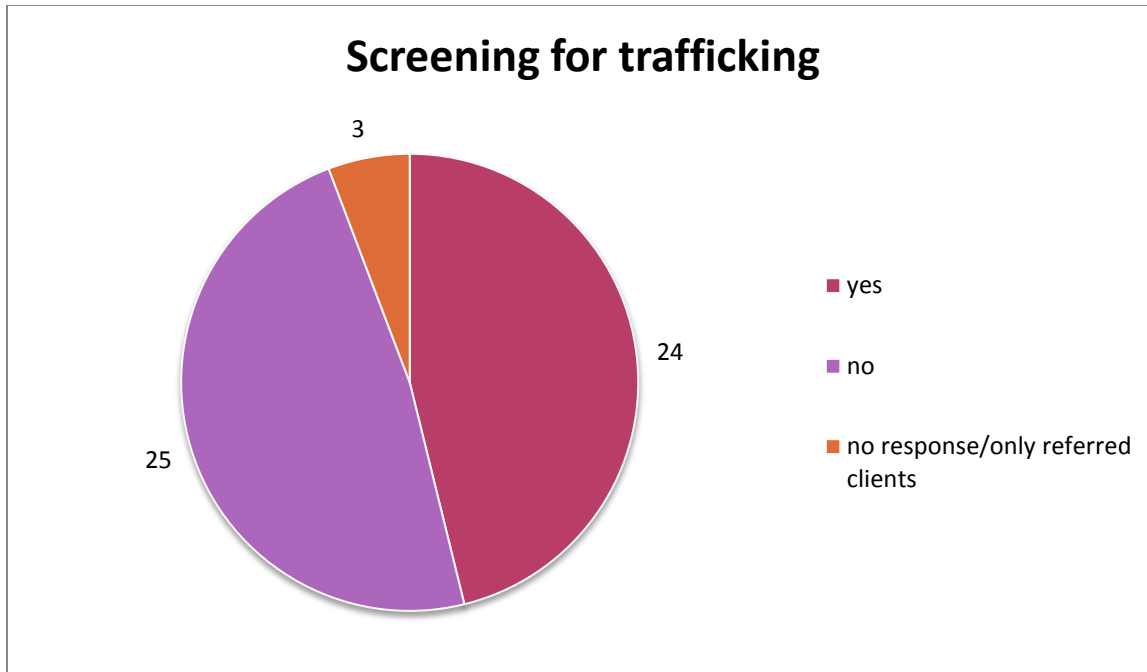

Many helpful resources for those who've been trafficked are not in these results. Referring the Milwaukee Commission on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault's guide You Are Not Alone and the Milwaukee Public School's Parent's Guide to Community Resources are both essential tools for anyone seeking to help youth and adults in finding assistance.

A few results to note

The majority of programs reported their expertise on human trafficking to be at a beginner level; often using words like basic, minimal, or introductory. However some programs have significant expertise, especially within specific populations like culturally specific populations or age groups or service focus like street outreach or legal services.

All results are self-reported by programs. No evaluation was made of any program included here. No endorsement of any program is intended. Community members are encouraged to ask their own questions before seeking services.

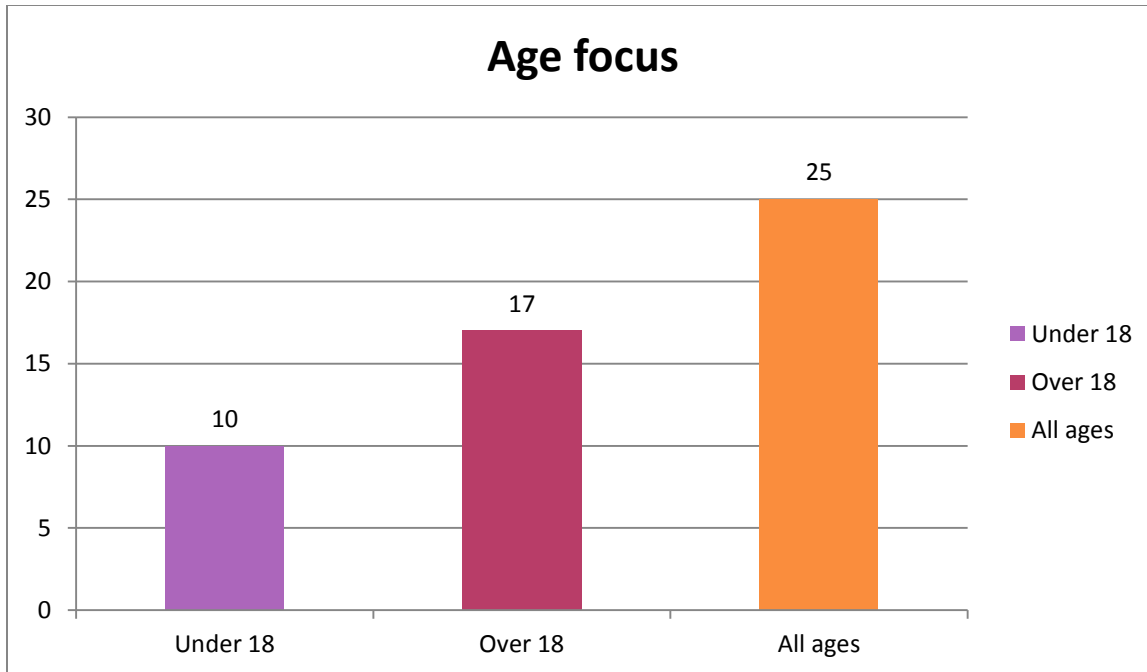

Almost half of the programs that responded do screen for human trafficking. Some of the other programs noted though that the information comes out in other ways or later in the process of working with clients.

Most programs wanted more training and actively sought out opportunities to improve their knowledge.

All results are self-reported by programs. No evaluation was made of any program included here. No endorsement of any program is intended. Community members are encouraged to ask their own questions before seeking services.

Programs varied in their focus on different age groups. Many programs served people of all ages. Opportunities in those programs would vary based on age and were sometimes dependent on one family member’s participation in a core program. For example, shelter for a parent might mean activities for the child.

Significantly, 34 of the programs reported working with at least 1 to over 20 people who’ve been trafficked in the past 12 months.

All results are self-reported by programs. No evaluation was made of any program included here. No endorsement of any program is intended. Community members are encouraged to ask their own questions before seeking services.

On one more note, programs were asked to describe their cultural competency in working with communities of color and LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) communities.

Cultural competence “is the ability of an individual to understand and respect values, attitudes, beliefs, and mores that differ across cultures, and to consider and respond appropriately to these differences in planning, implementing, and evaluating...programs and interventions.” (American Association for Health Education) Many programs responded that they worked with great numbers of people of color but didn't explain how that translated to cultural competency or changes in programs to account for that knowledge. Fewer programs still answered the question on LGBT competency with confidence and clarity.

It's possible that survey respondents would have answered the question differently given the definition up front. It's important considering how research has determined that 20-40% of homeless youth are LGBT identified, which is one of the ways we know high numbers of trafficked youth are LGBT. Additionally both criminal justice data and community based research find a disproportionate number of trafficked people of all ages are from communities of color.

Next steps

All of the survey results of each program are included in this report back. After reviewing the results, Task Force members may have additional questions.

Please note that a few programs specifically stated they did not want to be listed in a resource guide or with the National Human Trafficking Resource Center's Hotline.

After some reflection and discussion, Task Force members might decide that the next step would be to determine the quality or effectiveness of the programs before disseminating the results. Or the Task Force might decide to let service users determine for themselves the value of each program and develop a user-friendly guide to distribute.

The existing survey tool or an adapted version might be a helpful way to ask basic questions about programs new to the Human Trafficking Task Force.

Hopefully these results will get our community closer to the goals of a more coordinated response, greater information sharing and knowing the resources committed to assisting survivors of human trafficking to build healthy lives free from violence.

What other words/terms do your staff or clients use to describe what the law defines as human trafficking?

- Pimping, Managing, Exploiting
- Sex Trade
- Being vulnerable
- Control over a vulnerable person; emotional, verbal, psychological, sexual abuse
- Forced Prostitution
- labor trafficking, sex trafficking, mail order brides
- "Rings" RE: sex trafficking.
- Prostitution
- Too often, we hear the term "child prostitute" when referring to victims of minor sex trafficking. Whenever possible, we try to correct individuals when they incorrectly refer to child victims as prostitutes.
- forced, recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring, fraud, deception
- peonage, slave labor, prostitution, crime victims, incest,
- Being forced to do something you don't want to do
- youth who are "working for someone" or an adult being made to "work for someone" etc.
- exploitation, isolation, survivor
- Sex offenders, victims, survivors
- forced sex work; women call it "sex slavery"
- Working, Dancing, Being "Down"
- Slavery, bondage, migrant labor, human smuggling
- slavery; pimped
- Forcing an individual to do something against their will, often times to meet a basic need.
- child abuse, sexual assault, sex trade
- sex trafficking
- none, actually was not aware of how inclusive the law is.
- survival sex
- exploitation
- Sometimes our girls use prostitution or survival sex to describe their experiences. Some describe what we define as human trafficking as their 'boyfriends' or their 'daddy's'.

All results are self-reported by programs. No evaluation was made of any program included here. No endorsement of any program is intended. Community members are encouraged to ask their own questions before seeking services.

- Sex work, working the street, stripping
- "Hanging Out" "Working"
- Illegally, exploitation, under age, modern day slavery, and the illegal exchange of women and children who are captured and held and/ or manipulated against their will.
- I'm not sure the people I serve even understand what human trafficking means. More education to raise awareness would be very helpful.
- flipper, getting money, hookin, street stalker, escort, sex worker, adult entertainer
- sex trade work; "working"
- Our clients call it "prostituting."
- Slavery, selling
- "prostituting" (clients) sex work (staff)
- minors involved in the sex trade including dancing, performing sex acts, having sex for basic needs or a place to sleep, etc.
- entertainment; dancer; held against my will; take care of him (referring to landlord or other individuals in power); prostitute myself; hustle; sell my body
- modern day slavery
- prostitution, slave trade, human trafficking, pimping
- Getting Daddy's money, breaking bread, got to get paid
- Prostitutes who have a "guy or daddy". Those who are working in the sex/labor industry by force, coercion or threat
- I think we probably are talking about kids involved mainly in "prostitution".
- Pimping, domestic servitude
- House hopping, free spot
- When anyone is bought or sold for the pleasure, profit, or through the control of another person.
- we often refer the individuals as being vulnerable
- Control over a vulnerable person; emotional, verbal, psychological, sexual abuse
- sex trade; pimping; boyfriend/daddy; abduction; selling; in the business

Benedict Center

Contact information: Donna Hietpas, Benedict Center, 135 W. Wells St. Suite 700, Milwaukee WI 53203, dhietpas@benedictcenter.org, 414-347-1774 x206

Describe what you do: Benedict Center Women's Program works with women as an alternative to incarceration. We provide the following services: women's specific AODA Outpatient treatment; Seeking Safety (to assist women to cope with the aftermath of trauma); Moving On, a gender specific trauma informed cognitive behavioral series; Nurturing Parenting groups; adult education & GED classes; advocacy to courts and DOC; and referral to other community resources. Our Outreach program focuses on reaching women working the streets prior to another arrest and offers general hygiene supplies, condoms, food, and encourages the women to participate in our drop-in center.

Expertise on trafficking: We do not work with children; However, our nearly 40 years of working effectively with women who've been involved with the criminal justice system has given us a reputation with women as being an agency that is trustworthy and that provides help at whatever stage they are at. This reputation and the skills our staff brings to conversations with women encourages women to confide in us with information they may not offer to someone in another system.

Screening for trafficking: No, not at this time.

Training on trafficking received: through basic research and information gathered at the Atty. General's meeting earlier this year and from the Polaris presentation, conferences

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Catholic Charities

Contact information: Ricardo Cisneros, Catholic Charities, 731 W. Washington St. Milwaukee WI 53204, Rcisneros@ccmke.org, 414-771-2881

Describe what you do: Catholic Charities offers legal representation before both the Chicago immigration court and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. We offer representation to those seeking "U" non-immigrant status, VAWA, "T" or another form of relief if more appropriate for the victim. We also have a staff of bilingual (Spanish/English) counselors who offer culturally competent mental health services and a staff of bilingual outreach staff for case management.

Expertise on trafficking: Bilingual and Bicultural services. Our Legal Services to Immigrants program provides more legal representation to immigrant victims of crime and domestic violence than any other program in the State. All of our counselors are Master's level.

Screening for trafficking: Yes, we do.

Training on trafficking received: Basic and Advanced at The American Immigration Lawyers Association and Catholic Legal Immigration Network

Interested in training: No, not at this time.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Children 11 and under; Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24; Adults 18 and over; Elders

Type of trafficking: Human trafficking that is both sex and labor trafficking combined

Able to serve: Those with legal status; those who are undocumented or might be without legal status

Area: The ten counties of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee: Racine, Kenosha, Milwaukee, Dodge, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha and Ozaukee

Confidentiality/Anonymity: Our therapists are mandatory reporters, our attorneys must maintain confidentiality.

Cultural competence: Many of our refugee staff are immigrants. Our Legal Services program has bilingual and bicultural staff. The same is true of the counselors and therapists.

Languages: English; Spanish; Hmong; Our agency covers more than 22 languages

LGBTQ competence: Our legal services program has represented gay men in asylum proceedings.

Disability support: We would meet at an ADA compliant site.

Available: Weekdays during the day

Cost: Sliding scale fees; No one who could not pay would be turned away.

Currently offers: intake and assessment; case management to plan and coordinate care of those who've been trafficked; advocacy to ensure rights of those who've been trafficked; connection to Unaccompanied Refugee Minor program; transportation to appointments; assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; English as second language classes; culturally/linguistically specific services; spiritual counseling; legal advocacy for immigration options and relief; legal advocacy to obtain T or U visas, refugee status; language interpretation; assist in applying for benefits like SSI, W-2, FoodShare, etc.; mental health services; mental health counseling that addresses trafficking

Has referrals to: None listed.

Speaking to trafficked person directly: You have to let people know that attorneys are bound by confidentiality standards. The person can say whatever he or she wants. Second, attorneys will allow only the victim upstairs. We won't allow the person who came with the victim even if the victims says it is okay...not at least until we have a chance to speak alone.

Unable to serve: If the client made too much money, lived out of our area or did not keep us up to date on contact information.

How many referrals per month possible: 1-3

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: None that we know of

Plans for future trafficking specific services: No response.

Leadership of people with life experience: I do not know; I have never asked.

Willing to be listed locally as resource: Yes

Speaking to trafficked person directly:

Trafficking occurs when someone takes you away from where you live and forces you to work against your will (physical labor or prostitution) and/or use violence, and lies or threats to make you do it. If this has happened or is happening to you, we can help. Call 414-376-6606.

Unable to serve: If client was unwilling to leave trafficker or trafficking network; If client was unwilling to share real name before receiving basic services; If client was currently involved in the commercial sex trade and unwilling to stop or exit.

How many referrals per month possible: 1-3

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: 1-5

Plans for future trafficking specific services: Yes
- Based upon funding-we would like to expand our reach in this area for teens and parents with children for awareness.

Leadership of people with life experience: Yes, we do.

Willing to be listed locally as resource: Yes

Willing to be listed with National Hotline: Yes

Additional comments: Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault and as it pertains to trafficking is so closely related. As an agency and personally, I would like to see these terms be used in the same sentence and not continue to be separated out as they currently are within our own culture as advocates. It can be very divisive and minimizes all advocates capacity to meet the need of various cultures in placing resources where they are most needed.

Describe what you do: The mission of the organization is to advance the Kingdom of God by working to end human trafficking in Milwaukee through education and training, advocacy, and long-term residential aftercare. Our primary focus is building sustainable care for minor girls who have been victims of forced prostitution in Milwaukee.

Expertise on trafficking: Our objective is to provide spiritual, emotional, and physical care to minor girls who have been trafficked in or around Milwaukee. We do not plan to provide services to adult victims at this time.

Screening for trafficking: No, not at this time; We intend to receive referrals from first-responder agencies who have pre-identified victims

Training on trafficking received: Training from International Justice Mission; Salvation Army PROMISE Initiative; formal legal training on T and U Visas, etc.

Interested in training: No, not at this time.

Gender: females

Age groups: Children 11 and under; Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24; We intend to work with minor girls under the age of 18.

Type of trafficking: Sex trafficking

Able to serve: Those who have legal status; those who are undocumented or might not have legal status

Area: Milwaukee (city and county) and surrounding suburbs.

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are not a confidential program. We might have to share what we learn with law enforcement or the courts; The Board of Directors has not yet decided any specifics with respect to confidentiality of girls who will live in the aftercare homes, but reserves the right to communicate with law enforcement and courts at this time.

Cultural competence: Our staff and volunteers will receive cross-cultural training and we will also form partnerships with leaders and experts within the African-American and Latino communities in order to ensure our cultural competence.

Languages: English; Spanish

LGBTQ competence: We are still in the process of forming a plan of competency in regard to this question.

Disability support: The individual needs of program participants will be addressed as they arise.

Available: Weekdays during the day; Our service hours are subject to change after the aftercare program is launched.

Cost: Services are free to clients

Currently offers: emergency response when someone is located by law enforcement or comes forward; crisis support during or after trafficking; case management to plan and coordinate care of those who've been trafficked; advocacy to ensure rights of those who've been trafficked; safety planning including specifics around trafficking; long term housing for trafficking survivors; out of home care for children who've been trafficked (foster care, group home); residential therapeutic care with trafficking specific programming; transportation to appointments; assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; help finding employment; help learning job skills; tutoring/assistance with K-12 classes; first aid (cuts, burns, infections); assisting with accessing AODA treatment; spiritual counseling; coordination with law enforcement during trafficking investigations and prosecutions; language interpretation; life skills training; support for children of trafficked client; childcare services (during program participation); mental health services; trauma specific counseling; mental health counseling that addresses trafficking; peer support groups of trafficked youth or adults; peer support (non-trafficking specific); sex work or prostitution specific group support; youth programs; sexual abuse/assault advocacy; sexual abuse/assault support groups; assistance in re-connecting with family and support networks; volunteer opportunities for trafficking survivors; leadership development of trafficking survivors; awareness and education about trafficking; This

The Healing Center

Contact information: Jennifer Ward, The Healing Center, 130 W National Ave, Milwaukee WI 53204, jennifer.ward@aurora.org, 414-225-4240

Describe what you do: In essence what we can offer is basic need and systems advocacy, one on one counseling (noninsured), group work (not Human Trafficking specific) and education for adult survivors of sexual abuse and assault which includes the human trafficking. Let me be clear that in my opinion the staff (including myself) need more training and involvement in the human trafficking work to be most effective. We serve both men and women in a primary gender binary structure but services for "women" under that construct tends to be more expansive.

Expertise on trafficking: Minimal expertise specific to adults or children who've been trafficked. We do have knowledge on Sexual abuse/assault systems response, trauma counseling and group work for sexual trauma survivors; low – we usually get referrals from other providers (AODA treatment or criminal justice “halfway houses”). Thus they usually have had advocacy, AODA, and housing services before they come to the Healing Center.

Screening for trafficking: No, not at this time.

Training on trafficking received: very basic as an overall staff; personal reading but need more

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Adults 18 and over; Elders

Type of trafficking: Labor trafficking; Sex trafficking; Human Trafficking that is both sex and labor combined; We need to be more prepared! However we would/do serve the above clients.

Able to serve: Those with legal status; those who are undocumented or might be without legal status

Area: Milwaukee County, some people come in from neighboring counties

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are a confidential program. All of our staff will report child abuse & neglect.

Cultural competence: This is an area of needed growth for our agency especially as it relates to staff make - up and programming (we do not have cultural specific programming). We do have staff who are aware of cultural competency and works from a multicultural lens and others who work from an anti-racist lens.

Languages: English; Spanish

LGBTQ competence: We do not have LGBTGVQ specific programming but, we do have staff versed in competency issues as a part of training; we have staff who are LGB, some staff have received certificate in LGBT studies as part of Masters work.

Disability support: Elevator; TTY/TDD; Interpreter services

Available: Weekdays during the day

Cost: Services are free to clients; our individual therapy is specific to uninsured currently due to waitlist

Currently offers: advocacy to ensure rights of those who've been trafficked; assistance with restraining orders; transportation to appointments; assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; financial advocacy to repair credit, eviction history, lack of banking services, identity theft; assisting with accessing AODA treatment; legal advocacy for people charged with crimes (e.g. prostitution, trespassing); legal advocacy when reporting being a victim of a crime (e.g. kidnapping, sexual assault, trafficking); legal advocacy for immigration options and relief; legal advocacy to obtain T or U visas, refugee status; language interpretation; life skills training; assist in applying for benefits like SSI, W-2, FoodShare, etc.; trauma specific counseling; sexual abuse/assault advocacy; sexual abuse/assault support groups; domestic violence advocacy

Has referrals to: assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; financial advocacy to repair credit, eviction history, lack of banking services, identity theft; help finding employment; help learning job skills; ABE/GED classes; tutoring/assistance with K-12 classes; English as second language classes; culturally/linguistically specific services; preventive health care; reproductive and sexual health services; AODA counseling services; AODA residential treatment; assisting with accessing AODA treatment; harm reduction services for current drug users (e.g. overdose prevention, syringe exchange); non-western healthcare (e.g. herbs, traditional healers); spiritual counseling; legal advocacy for people charged with crimes (e.g. prostitution, trespassing); legal advocacy when reporting being a victim of a crime (e.g. kidnapping, sexual assault, trafficking); legal advocacy for immigration options and relief; legal advocacy to obtain T or U visas, refugee status; life skills training; cash assistance; mental health services; trauma specific counseling; peer support (non-trafficking specific); sex work or prostitution specific group support; youth programs; sexual abuse/assault advocacy; sexual abuse/assault support groups; domestic violence advocacy; domestic violence support groups

Speaking to trafficked person directly: How would you like me to address you? I'm so in so and I'm here to assist where I can in ways that are helpful to you? (if under 18, tell them I am a mandated reporter and give them the names and contact on non-mandated reported support.) What would be helpful right now? When you are in a space where you call or want some help/support please feel free to contact me. If cannot help, I will find someone who can but, only if you want me to.

Unable to serve: If client was an active drug user and unwilling to enter drug treatment; If client didn't fit our target population (age, cultural background, area of city, etc.); If client was youth pre 18 and spoke languages outside of English and Spanish at this time.

How many referrals per month possible: 1-3; there would need to be alternative systems so these folks would not have to wait on a waitlist or do a phone screen if inconvenience. We need more staff

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: over 20

Plans for future trafficking specific services: No - nothing at this time. First we need to develop a way to effectively assess across the board

Leadership of people with life experience: No, not that we know of.

Willing to be listed locally as resource: Yes

Willing to be listed with National Hotline: Yes

Additional comments: I feel that as an agency we have a long way to go to address the specific needs of both labor and sex traffic individual; We want to be a good partner in the work, and are open to whatever training, service development, etc. we need to do. I hope the MCHTTF can give each agency feedback and assistance that way.

Unable to serve: If agency was unable to get parental permission for a minor to receive services; If client was unwilling to share real name before receiving basic services; If agency was unable to secure reimbursement or funds for services; If client was the trafficker as we would report to law enforcement. As to "reimbursement or funds"; depending upon which tier of (training) the client sought as to "funds": some are free others are at cost.

How many referrals per month possible: We decide the dates for providing education/training or upon request of a client with 30 days' notice to host an ICF Speaker to provide a training for a client or an organization.

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: 1-5

Plans for future trafficking specific services: Yes
- Continuing Education in Public Service Education and Professional Credential Education [ongoing] in our CDVA Cohort.

Leadership of people with life experience: No response.

Willing to be listed locally as resource: Yes

Willing to be listed with National Hotline: Yes

Additional comments: As an agency we would like to see the line which currently separates Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence be eliminated. These are very much overlapping crimes which research shows are very much "linked" as either first or secondary in either case. Be believe based upon information and research, that this is a barrier to services and to funding distribution and it is the victims who are ultimately paying the price through lack of services due to funding disparities.

Kids Matter, Inc.

Contact information: Jennifer Hastings, Kids Matter Inc., 1850 N Martin Luther King Dr. Ste. 202, Milwaukee WI 53212, jennifer.hastings@kidsmatterinc.org, 414-344-1220

Describe what you do: Kids Matter Inc. (KMI) is a non-profit agency in Milwaukee County that primarily serves children and teenagers who are in foster care, group homes or being raised by relatives due to violence, abuse, or neglect. As a result, our population is vulnerable. KMI helps children by working in their best interest and advocating on their behalf. The agency also works to prevent child abuse by promoting and supporting safe and stable environments for children in the community. We routinely help child/teenage crime victims (or those raising them) navigate various legal and social service systems so they are aware of their options and more successful in their interactions. We also help ensure that individuals are aware of and able to access the resources available to them within the community. Programs and assistance provided through KMI do not replace formal child welfare services for children. Rather, KMI provides resources and support to supplement those services by working in collaboration with the child welfare agencies when appropriate.

Expertise on trafficking: When family members step in to help care for traumatized children or teenagers, either temporary or long-term, they often have questions and need information. Caregivers who are not legal guardians routinely face challenges accessing information and getting help for the children in their care. We work as a team of social workers, family advocates, and attorneys to help caregivers navigate complex systems (child welfare, criminal justice, family court, and children's court). We provide individuals with knowledge and tools to help them meet the needs of the children/teenagers they love, including; crisis and short-term counseling, emotional support and advocacy to help access various systems (medical insurance, kinship care payments, educational issues), and legal guidance and pro bono representation (as appropriate). We routinely partner and collaborate with community agencies, act as a liaison to the criminal justice system, and assist with Crime Victim Compensation Benefits.

Screening for trafficking: Yes, we do; As an interdisciplinary team, we routinely staff cases. Program managers and staff within the agency have been trained in the area of human sex trafficking and are able to recognize potential indicators.

Training on trafficking received: We have made a concerted effort to learn about human trafficking-particularly domestic minor sex trafficking and have had the benefit of having experts in the field conduct in-service training for staff and volunteers. Staff members have attended multiple trainings on the subject, and we are members of the US Attorney's Office Task Force on Human Trafficking.

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Children 11 and under; Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24

Type of trafficking: Sex trafficking; Human trafficking that is both sex and labor trafficking combined

Able to serve: Those with legal status; those who are undocumented or potentially without legal status

Area: Milwaukee County

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are a confidential program. All of our staff will report child abuse & neglect.

Cultural competence: The majority of the individuals we serve are African American.

Individual staff have had extensive training related to cultural competence.

Languages: English

LGBTQ competence: As an agency, we regularly serve members of the LGBT community, and are able to refer individuals to agencies who specifically serve the LGBT population if they so desire.

Disability support: Elevator; Large print materials; Mobility impaired accessible restrooms; Quiet space; Scent-free or low-scent spaces

Available: Weekdays during the day; We regularly meet with people after regular business hours and on weekends.

Cost: Services are free to clients

Currently offers: info and referral hotline to explore options if someone is trafficked; intake and assessment; emergency response when someone is located by law enforcement or comes forward; crisis support during or after trafficking; case management to plan and coordinate care of those who've been trafficked; advocacy to ensure rights of those who've been trafficked; safety planning including specifics around trafficking; assistance with restraining orders; hygiene supplies (e.g. soap, toothbrush); assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; financial advocacy to repair credit, eviction history, lack of banking services, identity theft; legal advocacy when reporting being a victim of a crime (e.g. kidnapping, sexual assault, trafficking); coordination with law enforcement during trafficking investigations and prosecutions; assist in applying for benefits like SSI, W-2, FoodShare, etc.;

Has referrals to: legal advocacy for people charged with crimes (e.g. prostitution, trespassing); legal advocacy for immigration options and relief; legal advocacy to obtain T or U visas, refugee status; advocacy for client to regain custody of kids; mental health services;

trauma specific counseling; mental health counseling that addresses trafficking; peer support groups of trafficked youth or adults; domestic violence advocacy; domestic violence support groups

Speaking to trafficked person directly: There is no one answer or response to this question, as it is highly dependent on the circumstances (labor or sex trafficking, adult or minor, international or domestic). Typically, we come into contact with adult victims of trafficking when their children are being cared for by relatives. Often, the relative contacts our agency seeking assistance accessing information or supportive services for the child. We try to engage the mother in the process if possible. Whether this is a temporary or long-term arrangement, the relative caregiver will likely face challenges accessing information and getting help for the minor if they have no legal authority. Caring for a minor who has been a victim of human sex trafficking can be an overwhelming process. They may be involved with multiple systems (child welfare, criminal justice, etc.), all who have different expectations. The caregiver will likely need assistance to ensure that the significant needs of the minor victim are met. Kids Matter provides crisis and short-term counseling, emotional support and advocacy to help access various complex systems (medical insurance, kinship care payments, and educational issues), legal guidance and pro bono representation (as appropriate). We act as a liaison to the criminal justice system and partner with other community agencies to equip caregivers with the knowledge and skills needed to meet the needs of the minor victim.

Unable to serve: If client didn't fit our target population (age, cultural background, area of city, etc.)

How many referrals per month possible: 4-6

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: 6-10

Plans for future trafficking specific services: No response

Lad Lake/St. Rose Youth and Family Center

Contact information: Debbie Zwicky, Lad Lake/St. Rose, 3801 N. 88th Street, Milwaukee, WI 53222, DebbieZwicky@ladlake.org, 414-760-8082

Describe what you do: The agency serves primarily adolescent boys, girls and their families in a variety of out-of-home placements and community services. We also provide outpatient services.

Expertise on trafficking: We have services for adolescent girls and this is where we have seen this issue the most. The girls are trafficked or have a history of being trafficked. The staff see the girls when they return, listen to their concerns, and recognize the challenge it is to help the girls understand that they are being trafficked. Mental health issues are largely related to the girls' sense of need for trafficking. We see primarily sex trafficking versus labor. St. Rose has dealt with girls involved in this issue for many, many years. We train our staff annually to be updated on the latest information.

Screening for trafficking: Yes, we do; this topic is looked at upon admission throughout the intake process.

Training on trafficking received: We try to provide annual training to be updated. Most of our training has been done by Claudine O'Leary or other outside conferences staff attend.

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Children 11 and under; Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24; Adults 18 and over

Type of trafficking: Sex trafficking

Able to serve: Those with legal status

Area: Our services reach the state of Wisconsin and Illinois.

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are not a confidential program. We might have to share information we learn with law enforcement and courts.

Cultural competence: We train our staff in diversity/cultural competency annually. We have a diverse staff population. We have worked within the Milwaukee and surrounding communities for many, many years.

Languages: English; Spanish; a few Spanish speaking staff, not required.

LGBTQ competence: We have experience in serving this population in our programs. We have utilized community resources to help with trainings for the staff and resources for the young people.

Disability support: Ramps for stairs; Elevator

Available: 24 hour/round-the-clock in person response

Cost: Private insurance; Medicaid; BadgerCare; fee for service programs

Currently offers: intake and assessment; emergency response when someone is located by law enforcement or comes forward; crisis support during or after trafficking; safety planning including specifics around trafficking;

hygiene supplies (e.g. soap, toothbrush); short term housing for trafficking survivors; out of home care for children who've been trafficked (foster care, group home); residential therapeutic care with trafficking specific programming; transportation to appointments; assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; help finding employment; help learning job skills; ABE/GED classes; first aid (cuts, burns, infections); access to comprehensive medical care; reproductive and sexual health services; AODA counseling services; spiritual counseling; coordination with law enforcement during trafficking investigations and prosecutions; life skills training; assist in applying for benefits like SSI, W-2, FoodShare, etc.; mental health services; trauma specific counseling; mental health counseling that addresses trafficking; peer support (non-trafficking specific); youth programs; sexual abuse/assault advocacy; sexual abuse/assault support groups; assistance in re-connecting with family and support networks; awareness and education about trafficking

Has referrals to: None listed.

Speaking to trafficked person directly: You have other choices. We will work with you.

Unable to serve: If agency was unable to get parental permission for a minor to receive services; If client was unwilling to share real name before receiving basic services; If agency was unable to secure reimbursement or funds for services; Our out-of-home placements have regulations that we have to follow.

How many referrals per month possible: 7-9

How many trafficked clients in last 12 months: 6-10

Plans for future trafficking specific services: Yes - We are involved in community task forces to address this situation and will continue to be involved in this issue to help the young ladies that we work with and educate our staff. A specialized program could be a possibility in the future.

Describe what you do: We are a residential treatment facility for adolescent girls. We provide services for girls in WI, IL, and MN at this time.

Expertise on trafficking: Due to being a gender specific program, we have honed our expertise over the years, first in trauma informed care, and then more specifically to human trafficking. Though we are still in the midst of tweaking programming every day to meet the needs of the girls, we are growing in our understanding of the complex needs surrounding these girls.

Screening for trafficking: Yes, we do.

Training on trafficking received: Outside of the ongoing training that I give my staff, we recently reached out to Claudine O'Leary to get further training for both my staff and the girls.

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females

Age groups: Adolescents 12-17

Type of trafficking: Sex trafficking; Human trafficking that is both sex and labor trafficking combined; Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC)

Northern Tier Anti-Trafficking Consortium

Contact information: Darci Jenkins, Northern Tier Anti-Trafficking Consortium at Heartland Human Care Services , 33 W Grand Ave, Suite 500, Chicago, IL 60657, djenkins@heartlandalliance.org, 312-662-6185 x 2425

Describe what you do: The NTAC program serves foreign-born individuals who have been identified as victims of human trafficking. The program also serves derivative family members. As a program, we recruit service providers to offer comprehensive case management to victims. We also provide training and technical assistance to these service providers. The overall goal of NTAC is to create a network of professionals and community members to help identify and properly serve victims of human trafficking.

Expertise on trafficking: The overall knowledge and expertise within the NTAC network for providing services to victims of human trafficking is very great. We have a spectrum of professionals ranging from social workers, attorneys, professional counselors, psychologists, etc. serving victims. All service providers are required to complete training on human trafficking and the specifics of the NTAC program before enrolling any participants in the program. There is always on going opportunities for additional training and assistance as well.

Screening for trafficking: Yes, we do.

Training on trafficking received: All services providers are required to complete a basic training on human trafficking and a comprehensive training on NTAC and how to serve foreign-born victims of trafficking.

Interested in training: No, not at this time.

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are a confidential program. Some of our staff are mandated reporters of abuse & neglect and some are not.

Cultural competence: As a program that only serves foreign-born victims of human trafficking, we have to be extremely culturally competent. Service providers are required to offer cultural/linguistic specific services or have partnerships with organizations that can provide these services. Staff are aware that every individual will be impacted by their trafficking situation differently based on their own cultural experience and background. Staff are constantly having conversations about cultural factors that impact victims and how we can better serve participants enrolled in the NTAC program.

Languages: English; Spanish; Russian; Burmese and Thai

LGBTQ competence: NTAC is prepared to serve victims of any sexuality and gender identity. We offer comprehensive case management, therefore, service providers are required to serve this population and/or have partnerships with organizations in their community that work specifically with the LGBTQ community.

Pathfinders – Youth Anti-Violence Advocacy

Contact information: Holly Krings (for Youth Anti-Violence Advocacy- other programs have other individuals), Pathfinders, 4200 N Holton St Suite 400, Milwaukee WI 53212, hkrings@pathfindersmke.org, 414-810-1536

Describe what you do: I am Pathfinder's Youth Anti-Violence Advocate and can help and support youth ages 13-24 who have been affected by sexual assault, relationship violence and/or stalking. Advocacy can look like a lot of different things: emotional support, safety planning, legal advocacy and support, transportation to appointments, medical advocacy, help working with systems in general (education, legal, medical etc). I can provide transportation for clients for all of the above, am willing to go anywhere in the greater Milwaukee area to work with clients and am not a mandated reporter. Overall I want to empower clients to make their own decisions, inform them of any options and support them however they choose to proceed.

Expertise on trafficking: This is certainly an issue that I am aware of and am always working to increase my training and expertise. I have had several clients who were in or exiting from trafficking situations. I feel generally comfortable working with this population but always feel like I could use more training and certainly try to learn from each experience I have had.

Screening for trafficking: I am certainly sensitive to this dynamic for youth and watch for indicators but don't have a blatant screening method.

Training on trafficking received: - I attended the law enforcement conference on human trafficking here in Milwaukee; I have had informal training from conversations with Street Beat and by doing a ride along with them however more training is certainly always welcome.

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24; Ages 13-24

Type of trafficking: Sex trafficking; Human trafficking that is both sex and labor trafficking combined

Able to serve: Those who have legal status; those who are undocumented or might not have legal status

Area: Happy to provide services within Milwaukee and also the surrounding area. I don't have a set boundary.

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are a confidential program. None of our staff are mandated reporters of abuse & neglect; varies for other Pathfinders Programs

Cultural competence: Very comfortable working in communities of color and always working to increase my cultural competency.

Languages: English

LGBTQ competence: My position was written with this population in mind. I am happy and comfortable to work with any LGBTQ client or anyone who is transgender or gender variant.

Disability support: Ramps for stairs; Mobility impaired accessible restrooms; Interpreter services; Quiet space Available: Weekdays during the day; I am happy to work outside of business hours (early evenings and weekends) if I am available and if needed.

Cost: Services are free to clients

Currently offers: crisis support during or after trafficking; case management to plan and coordinate care of those who've been trafficked; advocacy to ensure rights of those who've been trafficked; safety planning including specifics around trafficking; assistance with restraining orders; transportation to appointments; assistance in getting identification, birth certificate; legal advocacy for people charged with crimes (e.g. prostitution, trespassing); legal advocacy when reporting being a victim of a crime (e.g. kidnapping, sexual assault, trafficking); assist in applying for benefits like SSI, W-2, FoodShare, etc.; sexual abuse/assault advocacy; domestic violence advocacy; answering only for my program- many of the referrals I noted are for other Pathfinders programs

Has referrals to: info and referral hotline to explore options if someone is trafficked; intake and assessment; drop-in center services welcoming people who've been trafficked; street outreach; emergency shelter for those who've been trafficked; emergency food;

emergency clothing (including underwear); hygiene supplies (e.g. soap, toothbrush); short term housing for trafficking survivors; help finding employment; help learning job skills; ABE/GED classes; tutoring/assistance with K-12 classes; English as second language classes; culturally/linguistically specific services; first aid (cuts, burns, infections); reproductive and sexual health services; legal advocacy for immigration options and relief; coordination with law enforcement during trafficking investigations and prosecutions; mental health services; trauma specific counseling; peer support (non-trafficking specific); sex work or prostitution specific group support; mentorship from survivors of trafficking; youth programs; sexual abuse/assault support groups; domestic violence support groups; support for family members and partners of trafficked youth and/or adults

Sojourner Family Peace Center

Contact information: Liz Marquardt and Michelle Coppens-Bunker, Sojourner Family Peace Center, P.O. Box 080319, Milwaukee WI 53208, LizM@familypeacecenter.org or MichelleC@familypeacecenter.org, 414-276-1911 (Main Office) or 414.933.2722 (24-hour hotline)

Describe what you do: We offer supportive services for those affected by domestic abuse. Our services include emergency shelter, help with restraining orders, support around criminal cases, support for those interacting with law enforcement, "life skills" (i.e. support with budgeting, resumes, job finding, etc.), case management and support groups for victims/survivors, groups and case management for abusers, groups and other support for children in families experiencing violence and community education/training.

Expertise on trafficking: Moderate. Some of our staff are more experienced and better training in this area than others. Additionally, our services are more geared for adults than for children (if their "protective parent" is not a part of their life).

Screening for trafficking: No, not at this time.

Training on trafficking received: Conferences; in-services

Interested in training: Yes, we are.

Gender: females; males; transgender and gender variant people

Age groups: Children 11 and under; Adolescents 12-17; Young adults 17-24; Adults 18 and over; Elders; Our agency does work with all ages, however we've experienced some challenges around working with youth trafficking victims (it has been less challenging with adult trafficking victims).

Type of trafficking: Labor trafficking, Sex trafficking; Human Trafficking that is both sex and labor trafficking combined; We have worked with both types of cases, though sex trafficking has been far more common.

Able to serve: Those with legal status; those who are undocumented or might be without legal status

Area: Primarily Milwaukee County, but open to all

Confidentiality/Anonymity: We are a confidential program. Some of our staff are mandated reporters of abuse & neglect and some are not; Generally speaking, our services are confidential except when there are concerns RE: homicide, suicide and child abuse. Additionally, people can talk to us anonymously as well.

Cultural competence: Diverse staff; We retain several bilingual staff to serve those who do not speak English or who have limited abilities to speak English. We will also retain interpreters to work with clients as needed. We do routine training RE: various cultural issues and also work to recruit a diverse staff to work at our agency.

Languages: English; Spanish; Hmong; Russian; Polish; Interpreters for all other languages

LGBTQ competence: Our staff have received training on working with those in same sex/LGBT relationships. We have also built partnerships with agencies who serve this community. We work to use the word "partner" versus assuming that someone is in a heterosexual relationship.

Disability support: Elevator; TTY/TDD; Mobility impaired accessible restrooms; Interpreter services; Quiet space; Our agency has office in a number of different locations through the city of Milwaukee--the accessibility of each of these locations varies a great deal. However, all of our staff have access to a "disability resource kit" that has various tools that help our services be more accessible for those with disabilities. We partner with Independence First as needed, as well.

Available: Weekdays during the day; Weekdays in the evening; Weekends; 24 hour/round-the-clock in person response; 24 hour hotline response; This varies a great deal from program-to-program--some are 24 hours, while others are during "traditional business hours".

Cost: Services are free to clients; Sliding scale fees; the overwhelmingly majority of services are completely free. However, some clients participating in our batterers treatment program do pay (on a sliding fee scale) for their services in group.
