Introduction
Government Transparency and the Wisconsin Public Records Law

- “Transparency and oversight are essential to honest, ethical governance.”

  - Objectives:
    - Shed light on workings of government and acts of public officers and employees
    - Assist members of the public in becoming an informed electorate
    - Serve a basic tenet of our democratic system by providing opportunity for public oversight
Presumption

The public records law “shall be construed in every instance with a presumption of complete public access, consistent with the conduct of government business. The denial of public access generally is contrary to the public interest, and only in an exceptional case may access be denied.”

— Wis. Stat. § 19.31
Public Records Request Process

- PRR received and forwarded to authority’s records custodian
- Authority begins search for records
- Any responsive records are reviewed:
  - Is there a statutory or common law exemption from disclosure?
  - Authority applies public records balancing test
- Records are released with letter explaining any redactions
Public Record Roles
Public Record Roles

- Authority: Defined in Wis. Stat. § 19.32(1) - any of specified entities having custody of a record

- Legal Custodian: Defined in Wis. Stat. § 19.33 - vested by an authority with full legal power to render decisions and carry out public records responsibilities
  - E.g., elective official or designee
  - All records belong to the authority
  - Custodial services: other staff may assist

- Requester: Defined at Wis. Stat. § 19.32(3) - generally, any person who requests to inspect or copy a record
  - Incarcerated or committed persons: more limited rights
  - Requester has greater rights to inspect personally identifiable information about himself or herself in a record. Wis. Stat. § 19.35(1)(am)
Who Can Request?

- Requester generally need not identify himself or herself
- Requester need not state the purpose of the request
  - Motive generally not relevant, but context appropriately considered
- State ex rel. Ardell v. Milwaukee Board of School Directors, 2014 WI App 66, 354 Wis. 2d 471, 849 N.W.2d 894: Safety concerns may be relevant, but it is a fact-intensive issue determined on a case-by-case basis in the balancing test.
“Record”

- Wis. Stat. § 19.32(2):
  - “Any material on which written, drawn, printed, spoken, visual or electromagnetic information or electronically generated or stored data is recorded or preserved, regardless of physical form or characteristics, which has been created or is being kept by an authority.”
- Content not format
Is it a Record?

No:
- Published material available for sale or at library
- Purely personal property
- Material with limited access rights, such as copyrights or patents
- Drafts, notes, and preliminary documents
Drafts, Notes, Preliminary Documents

- Prepared for originator’s personal use or in the name of a person for whom the originator is working
- Not a draft if used for purpose for which it was commissioned
- One cannot indefinitely qualify a document as a draft by:
  - Simply labeling it “draft”
  - Preventing final corrections from being made
Is it a Record?

Yes:

- Not created by the authority but in the authority’s possession
- Electronic records, including:
  - Audio and video
  - Data in a database
  - Emails
  - Social media
- Contractors’ records
Audio and Video

- Examples:
  - Police body cameras
  - Police dashboard cameras
  - Surveillance video
  - Accompanying audio
  - 911 recordings
- Retention issues
- Redaction
Personal and Business Email, etc.

- Personal email, calls, and documents on an authority’s account:
  - Email sent and received on an authority’s computer system is a record
    - Includes purely personal email sent by officers or employees of the authority
  - Disclosure generally not required

  Schill v. Wisconsin Rapids School District, 2010 WI 86, 327 Wis. 2d 572, 786 N.W.2d 177
Government business emails, calls, and documents on private accounts:

- These materials may be “records”
  - Content determines whether something is a “record,” not the medium, format, or location
  - Personal materials on the same private accounts are not subject to disclosure

Recommendation: Conduct a careful search of all relevant accounts
Electronic Records

- Social media accounts created or maintained by an authority
- Cell phone content, including content on phones issued by an authority and possibly content on personal phones used for government business
  - Phone call records, text messages, app content
- It is important to check cell phones when gathering records in response to public records requests
Receiving and Processing a Request
Sufficient Request

- A request need not be in writing; it may be verbal
- An authority may not require the use of a form
- “Magic words” are not required
- A request must:
  - Reasonably describe the information or records requested
  - Be reasonably specific as to time and subject matter
- Custodian should not have to guess what records the requester wants
Scope of Request

- A large number of responsive records—by itself—does not make a request too broad
  - But a request cannot so burden an authority that its normal functioning would be impaired
- A requester may have no way of knowing how many responsive records exist
- A requester may have no interest in many “technically” responsive records
- Keep purpose and objective of the public records law in mind
Evaluating a Request

- Carefully assess to determine what is needed to respond
- Don’t understand the request?
  - Contact the requester
    - Send a written summary of your understanding
    - Request clarification
- Inform the requester about a large number of responsive records, or large estimated costs, and suggest/solicit alternatives
- Send the requester an acknowledgment and periodic status updates if the response will take some time
Four Steps

1. Does a responsive record exist?
2. Is there an absolute right of access?
3. Is access absolutely denied?
4. Apply the balancing test
Step 1: Does the Record Exist?

- Generally, only records that exist at the time of the request must be produced
  - To respond, an authority need not create new records
- Public records law does not require answering questions
  - However, if a request asks a question and an existing record answers the question, provide the record or inform the requester
- Continuing requests are not contemplated by the public records law
- If there are no responsive records, inform the requester
Steps 2 & 3: Absolute Right/Denial

- Absolute Right: Not many exist:
  - Books and papers “required to be kept” by sheriff, clerk of circuit court, and other specified county officials
  - Daily arrest logs or police “blotters” at police departments

- Absolute Denial:
  - Can be located in public records statutes:
    - Information related to a current investigation of possible employee criminal conduct or misconduct
    - Plans or specifications for state buildings
  - Can be located in other statutes or case law:
    - Patient health care records; pupil records
Step 4: The Balancing Test

- Weigh the public interest in disclosure of the record against the public interest and public policies against disclosure
- Fact intensive; “blanket rules” disfavored
- Must conduct on case-by-case basis taking into consideration the totality of circumstances
- Identity of the requester and the purpose of the request are generally not part of the balancing test
Some Sources of Public Policies

- Policies expressed in other statutes
  - E.g., patient health care records, student records
- Court decisions
- Exemptions to open meetings requirements in Wis. Stat. § 19.85(1)
  - Only if there is a specific demonstration of need to deny access at the time of the request
- Policies expressed in evidentiary privileges
- Public interest in reputation and privacy of individuals
Balancing Test: Law Enforcement Investigations
Law Enforcement Considerations

- Presumption of completed public access
  - The public’s right to know
- Crime victim rights expressed in statutes, constitutional provisions, and case law
  - Consideration of family of crime victims
- Protection of witnesses
  - Safety and security
  - “Chilling” future cooperation with law enforcement
- Children and juveniles
- Officer safety
  - Including the safety of officers’ families and homes
Investigation Considerations

- There is a strong public interest in investigating and prosecuting criminal activity
- Linzmeyer v. Forcey, 2002 WI 84, 254 Wis. 2d 306, 646 N.W.2d 811
  - Public oversight of police investigations is important
  - Police investigation reports can be particularly sensitive
  - Generally, law enforcement records more likely to have an adverse effect on public interests if released Investigation Considerations, cont.

- Would the release endanger the safety of persons involved?
- Are there reputation and privacy interests involved?
  - The public interest is found in the public effects of failing to honor the individual’s privacy interests not the individual’s personal interests
- Do the records contain rumor, hearsay, or potentially false statements?
- Were potentially biased witnesses interviewed?
- Do the records discuss confidential law enforcement techniques and procedures?
- Is there a possibility of threats, harassment, or reprisals?
  - Against victims, witnesses, officers, others, or their families?
  - Any such possibility is accorded appropriate weight depending on the likelihood
    - Generally, there must be a reasonable probability
Special Issues

- A prosecutor’s files are not subject to public inspection under the public records law. State ex rel. Richards v. Foust, 165 Wis. 2d 429, 433-34, 477 N.W.2d 608, 610 (1991).
  - Law enforcement records: balancing test must be applied on a case-by-case basis
- Wis. Stat. § 19.36(8): Information identifying confidential informants must be withheld unless balancing test requires otherwise
Records related to children or juveniles:

- Wis. Stat. ch. 48: Law enforcement records of children who are the subjects of such investigations or other proceedings are confidential with some exceptions. See Wis. Stat. § 48.396.

- Wis. Stat. ch. 938: Law enforcement records of juveniles who are the subjects of such investigations or other proceedings are confidential with some exceptions. See Wis. Stat. § 938.396.

- Access to other records regarding or mentioning children subject to general public records rules

- Audio and video:
  - Voices and likenesses of victims and witnesses
  - Home addresses, home interiors, family photographs, personal documents
- Driver’s Privacy Protection Act (DPPA)
    - Accident reports: permitted to be released unredacted
    - Incident reports: release of DMV info. prohibited unless exception applies
      - Compliance with public records request not a “function”
    - Information verified using DMV records is not protected by DPPA
      - Presents problem of determining how info. was obtained
Employee Records

- Wis. Stat. § 19.36(10): Treatment of employee personnel records
  - Generally, access not permitted for information related to:
    - Employee’s home address, email, phone number, SSN
    - Current investigation of possible criminal offense or misconduct connected with employment
    - Employee’s employment examination, except the score
    - Staff management planning, including performance evaluations, judgments, letters of reference, other comments or ratings relating to employees
  - Other personnel-related records, including disciplinary records may be subject to disclosure
  - Notice to record subjects is only required in limited circumstances
    - See Wis. Stat. 19.356
Redaction
Redaction

- Wis. Stat. § 19.36(6): If part of a record is disclosable, must disclose that part and redact non-disclosable portions
- No specific way to redact: electronic redaction, black magic marker, cover up with white paper when photocopying
- Redaction constitutes a denial of access to the redacted information
  - Therefore subject to review by mandamus
Redaction—Audio and Video

- Audio—accompanying video, dispatch recordings, etc.
  - Digital editing programs and equipment
  - Partial redaction
- Video—security video, police body and dashboard cameras, etc.
  - Video blurring
    - Blacking out portions of video
- Technology
- Cost
Responding to a Request
Written Response?

- A written request requires a written response, if the request is denied in whole or in part.
- May respond in writing to a verbal request.
- A request for clarification, without more, is not a denial.
- Must inform requestor that denial is subject to review in an enforcement action for mandamus under Wis. Stat. § 19.37(1) or by application to district attorney or Attorney General.
Reasons for Denial

- Reasons for denial must be specific and sufficient
  - Purpose is to give adequate notice of reasons for denial and ensure that custodian has exercised judgment
- Reviewing court usually limited to reasons stated in denial
- Availability of same records from other sources generally not a sufficient reason
Timing of Response

- Response is required, “as soon as practicable and without delay”
  - No specific time limits, depends on circumstances
- DOJ policy: 10 business days generally reasonable for response to simple, narrow requests
- May be prudent to send an acknowledgement and status updates
- Penalties for arbitrary and capricious delay
Notice Before Release

- Required by Wis. Stat. § 19.356(2)(a)1
  - Records information resulting from closed investigation into a disciplinary matter or possible employment-related violation of policy, rule, or statute
  - Records obtained by subpoena or search warrant
  - Records prepared by an employer other than the authority about employees of that employer
    - “Record subject” can try to stop disclosure in court
- Required by Wis. Stat. § 19.356(9)-officer or employee holding state or local public office
  - OAG-07-14 (Oct. 15, 2014)
- Courtesy notice
Costs
Costs

- Actual, necessary, and direct costs only—unless otherwise specified by law
  - Copying and reproduction
  - Location, if costs are $50.00 or more
  - Mailing/shipping to requester
  - Others specified in Wis. Stat. § 19.35(3)
- Authorities may not charge for redaction costs
- Prepayment may be required if total costs exceed $5.00
- Authority may waive all or part of costs
Cost of Response

- Clarifying or limiting a request may:
  - Reduce costs to requester
  - Eliminate records not of interest to requester
  - Facilitate a quicker response

- Cost estimates should be reasonable, based on information available before preparing the response or developed during preparation

- Keep careful records in order to support and calculate requests for payment of costs

Record Retention—Public Records Law

- Wis. Stat. § 19.35(5) - after receiving a request:
  - No destruction until request granted or until at least 60 days after request is denied
    - 90 days if requester is committed or incarcerated
  - No destruction during enforcement action
