INTRODUCTION
Presentation Overview

• Provide brief background on DOJ’s Office of Open Government

• Public Records Session: Cover public records law essentials, including:
  • Explain what is a record and who can request records
  • Discuss the receipt and processing of public records requests
  • Outline how to respond to public records requests
  • Address records retention

• Open Meetings Session: Outline open meetings law essentials, including:
  • Define what constitutes a governmental body
  • Explain when a meeting occurs
  • Detail meeting notice requirements

• Offer the opportunity for questions
Office of Open Government (OOG)

- Interpret and apply the Open Meetings Law, Public Records Law, and other open government statutes and rules
- Manage DOJ’s public records request process
- Develop open government policies
- Provide legal counsel to DOJ and clients
- Run the PROM help line and respond to citizen correspondence concerning open government issues
    - Any person may request AG’s advice
- Provide training and open government resources
Government Transparency

• “Transparency and oversight are essential to honest, ethical governance.” John K. MacIver Inst. for Pub. Policy, Inc. v. Erpenbach, 2014 WI App 49, ¶ 32, 354 Wis. 2d 61, 848 N.W.2d 862

• Wisconsin Public Records Law, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.31 to 19.39
  • Sheds light on workings of government, acts of public officers and employees
  • Assists members of the public in becoming an informed electorate
  • Serves a basic tenet of our democratic system by providing for public oversight

• Wisconsin Open Meetings Law, Wis. Stat. §§ 19.81 to 19.98
  • The purpose of the open meetings law is to ensure openness
    • Only a few limited exemptions permit confidentiality
  • The open meetings law is to be broadly interpreted to promote openness
The Public Records Law and Records Retention
Presumption

The public records law “shall be construed in every instance with a presumption of complete public access, consistent with the conduct of government business. The denial of public access generally is contrary to the public interest, and only in an exceptional case may access be denied.”

— Wis. Stat. § 19.31
PUBLIC RECORDS ROLES
Authorities and Custodians

- Authority: Defined in Wis. Stat. § 19.32(1) - any of specified entities having custody of a record

- Legal Custodian: Defined in Wis. Stat. § 19.33 - vested by an authority with full legal power to render decisions and carry out public records responsibilities
  - E.g., elective official or designee
  - Custodial services: other staff may assist
  - All records belong to the authority

- Requester: Defined at Wis. Stat. § 19.32(3) - generally, any person who requests to inspect or copy a record
  - Incarcerated or committed persons have more limited rights
  - Requester has greater rights to inspect personally identifiable information about himself or herself in a record. Wis. Stat. § 19.35(1)(am)
“Record” Defined

- Wis. Stat. § 19.32(2):
  - “Any material on which written, drawn, printed, spoken, visual or electromagnetic information or electronically generated or stored data is recorded or preserved, regardless of physical form or characteristics, which has been created or is being kept by an authority.”
Records

- Records include the following:
  - Audio and video recordings
  - Data in a database
  - Emails, texts, and social media
  - Virtual workplace chat content, channel discussions, and files
  - Other electronic records
  - Material not created by the authority but in the authority’s possession
Not Records

- Records do not include the following:
  - Published material available for sale or at library
  - Material with limited access rights, such as copyrights or patents
  - Purely personal property
  - Drafts, notes, and preliminary documents
Drafts, Notes, Preliminary Documents

- Prepared for originator’s personal use or in the name of a person for whom the originator is working
- Not a draft if used for purpose for which it was commissioned
- One cannot indefinitely qualify a document as a draft by simply labeling it “draft” or preventing final corrections from being made Electronic Records: Email, Texts, etc.

- Personal email, texts, calls, and documents on an authority’s account:
  - Email sent and received on an authority’s computer system is a record
    - Includes purely personal email sent by officers or employees of the authority
  - Schill v. Wisconsin Rapids School District, 2010 WI 86, 327 Wis. 2d 572, 786 N.W.2d 177
    - Generally, disclosure not required of purely personal e-mails sent or received by employees that evince no violation of law or policy.

- Government business emails, texts, calls, and documents on personal accounts:
  - These materials may be “records”
    - Content determines whether something is a “record,” not medium, format, or location
  - Personal materials on the same private accounts are not subject to disclosure

- Recommendation: Conduct a careful search of all relevant accounts
RECEIVING AND PROCESSING A REQUEST
Who Can Request?

- Requesters may be anonymous, and generally, need not identify themselves.
  - However, public records requests are records subject to disclosure.

- Requesters need not state the purpose of their requests.
  - Motive generally not relevant, but context appropriately considered.

- State ex rel. Ardell v. Milwaukee Board of School Directors, 2014 WI App 66, 354 Wis. 2d 471, 849 N.W.2d 894: Safety concerns may be relevant, but it is a fact-intensive issue determined on a case-by-case basis in the balancing test.
Receiving a Request

- A request may be submitted to anyone working for an authority
  - A request may be verbal or in writing
  - An authority may not require the use of a form
  - “Magic words” are not required

- In order to be a sufficient request, it must:
  - Reasonably describe the information or records requested
  - Be reasonably specific as to time and subject matter

- Custodian should not have to guess what records the requester wants

- Tip: It is okay to contact the requester to clarify
Records Must Exist

- Generally, only records that exist at the time of the request must be produced
  - To respond, an authority need not create new records

- Public records law does not require answering questions
  - However, if a request asks a question and an existing record answers the question, provide the record or inform the requester

- Continuing requests are not contemplated by the public records law

- If there are no responsive records, inform the requester. See Journal Times v. Police & Fire Com’rs Bd., 2015 WI 56, ¶ 102, 362 Wis. 2d 577, 866 N.W.2d 563.
Review Each Requested Record

- Each requested record must be reviewed to determine the following:
  - Whether all or part of the requested record is prohibited from disclosure pursuant to a statute or the common law
    - Statutes may be found within the public records law itself or elsewhere
  - Whether the public records balancing test weighs in favor of not disclosing all or part of the requested record
    - Presumption that the records will be disclosed
- Records or information exempt from disclosure must be redacted

- This process can be time consuming for audio and video recordings
  - It may be helpful to communicate this to the requester
The Balancing Test

- Weigh the public interest in disclosure of the record against the public interest and public policies against disclosure
  - Consider public policies expressed in other statutes, court decisions, exemptions to open meeting requirements in Wis. Stat. § 19.85(1), evidentiary privileges, etc.

- Fact intensive; “blanket rules” disfavored

- Must conduct on case-by-case basis taking into consideration the totality of circumstances

- Identity of requester and purpose of request are generally not part of the balancing test
ISSUES TO NOTE
Prosecutor’s Files v. Law Enforcement Records

• A prosecutor’s files are not subject to public inspection under the public records law. State ex rel. Richards v. Foust, 165 Wis. 2d 429, 433–34, 477 N.W.2d 608, 610 (1991).
  - Applies to documents integral to the criminal investigation and the prosecution process, as well as historical data leading up to the prosecution. Nichols v. Bennett, 199 Wis. 2d 268, 275 n.4, 544 N.W. 2d 428 (1996); Foust, 165 Wis. 2d at 434.

• However, for a law enforcement agency’s records, the regular public records process, including application of the balancing test on a case-by-case basis, must be followed.
  - There is a strong public interest in investigating and prosecuting criminal activity
  - Linzmeyer v. Forcey, 2002 WI 84, 254 Wis. 2d 306, 646 N.W.2d 811
    - Public oversight of police investigations is important
    - Police investigation reports can be particularly sensitive
    - Generally, law enforcement records more likely to have an adverse effect on public interests if released
Law Enforcement Records – Key Considerations

- Crime victims’ rights expressed in statutes, constitutional provisions, and case law
  - Includes family of crime victims
- Marsy’s Law: Balancing test considerations

- Protection of witnesses
  - Safety and security; “chilling” future cooperation with law enforcement

- Confidential Informants
  - Wis. Stat. § 19.36(8): Information identifying confidential informants must be withheld unless balancing test requires otherwise
Law Enforcement Records – Key Considerations, continued

• Children and juveniles
  • Wis. Stat. ch. 48: Law enforcement records of children who are the subjects of such investigations or other proceedings are confidential with some exceptions. See Wis. Stat. § 48.396.
  • Wis. Stat. ch. 938: Law enforcement records of juveniles who are the subjects of such investigations or other proceedings are confidential with some exceptions. See Wis. Stat. § 938.396.
  • Access to other records regarding or mentioning children subject to general public records rules, including application of the balancing test.

• Officer safety, including the safety of their families and homes

• Tip: If an authority has a record that it did not create, it can reach out to the originating authority to see what concerns it may have
Law Enforcement – Questions to Ask

• Would the release endanger the safety of persons involved?
• Are there reputation and privacy interests involved?
  • The public interest is found in the public effects of failing to honor the individual’s privacy interests not the individual’s personal interests
• Do the records contain rumor, hearsay, or potentially false statements?
• Were potentially biased witnesses interviewed?
Law Enforcement – Questions to Ask, continued

- Do the records discuss confidential law enforcement techniques and procedures?
- Is there a possibility of threats, harassment, or reprisals (against victims, witnesses, officers, others, or their families)?
  - Any such possibility is accorded appropriate weight depending on the likelihood
    - Generally, there must be a reasonable probability
      - See John K. Maclver Inst. for Pub. Policy, Inc. v. Erpenbach, 2014 WI App 49, 354 Wis. 2d 61, 848 N.W.2d 862
Ongoing Investigations and Prosecutions

- The public records law does not include a prohibition against the release of records regarding an ongoing investigation or prosecution.
  - Exception under § 19.36(10)(b):
    - Unless required by § 103.13
      - prohibits the disclosure of information related to the current investigation of possible crime or misconduct connected with employment by employee.
Ongoing Investigations and Prosecutions

- Ongoing investigation/prosecution is a factor under the balancing test; considerations:
  - Impact on the ability to have a fair trial
    - Influence on jury pool or judge
  - Influence on potential witnesses and impact on the ability to determine veracity
  - Availability of requested records prior to ongoing investigation/prosecution
    - E.g., an individual’s personnel file; Acadis records

- Tip: A law enforcement agency that receives a public records request related to an ongoing prosecution should contact the prosecutor to see if there are concerns related to release.
Body Camera Recordings – Retention

- Wis. Stat. § 165.87(2):
  - Must retain all data from law enforcement body cameras for at least 120 days
  - Exceptions that require longer retention, including:
    - Encounters that result in death or actual or alleged injury
    - Encounters that result in a custodial arrest
    - A search during an authorized temporary questioning
    - Encounters that include the use of force by a law enforcement officer
  - Other situations in which longer retention may be required
    - Including when body camera data is used in criminal, civil, or administrative proceedings
Body Camera Recordings – Definitions

• Wis. Stat. § 165.87(3)(a):
  • “Authority” and “requester” have the same meanings as in the public records law
  • “Record subject” means an individual recorded by a body camera to whom all the following apply:
    • Individual is depicted or the individual’s voice is audible
    • Individual’s identity is known to the law enforcement agency
    • Individual is not a law enforcement officer acting in an official capacity
      • Unless a crime or other violation of law has been committed or alleged to have been committed against the officer while present at the location that was recorded
Body Camera Recordings – Disclosure

• Wis. Stat. § 165.87(3)(b):
  • Generally, data from a body camera are records subject to disclosure

• Wis. Stat. § 165.87(3)(c):
  • Outlines public policy weighing in favor of nondisclosure of certain content:
    • Privacy of victims of sensitive or violent crimes
    • Privacy of minors
    • Privacy of record subjects in a location where a record subject has a reasonable expectation of privacy
  • Such an individual’s face and other identifiers must be redacted
  • Unless they do not object or the public interest is so great that it outweighs the public policy weighing in favor of nondisclosure
Body Camera Recordings – Disclosure, continued

- Wis. Stat. § 165.87(3)(d):
  - For the purposes of public records requests, the law enforcement agency that created the body camera recording is the legal custodian.
  - Other authorities possessing the recording must deny requests for it.

- Wis. Stat. § 165.87(3)(e):
  - Statute does not prohibit release of body camera data under Wis. Stat. § 175.47(5)(b) (release of reports related to reviews of officer-involved deaths).
Employee Records

- Wis. Stat. § 19.36(10): Treatment of employee personnel records
  - Unless required by Wis. Stat. § 103.13, prohibits the disclosure of information related to:
    - Employee’s home address, email, phone number, SSN
    - Current investigation of possible criminal offense or misconduct connected with employment
    - Employee’s employment examination, except the score
    - Staff management planning, including performance evaluations, judgments, letters of reference, other comments or ratings relating to employees

- Other personnel-related records, including disciplinary records, may be subject to disclosure
  - Notice to employees is required in certain circumstances. See Wis. Stat. § 19.356.
Other Issues to Note

- Stat. § 905.03(2) and Common Law: Lawyer-Client Privileged Communications
- Wis. Stat. § 804.01(2)(c)1 and Common Law: Attorney Work Product
- Wis. Stat. § 165.79: Crime Laboratory Privilege
- Other statutes requiring confidentiality
Redaction

- Wis. Stat. § 19.36(6): If part of a record is disclosable, must disclose that part and redact non-disclosable portions

- No specific way to redact: electronic redaction, black magic marker, cover up with white paper when photocopying

- Redaction constitutes a denial of access to the redacted information
  - Therefore, subject to review by mandamus
Redaction: Audio Recordings

- Computer software is available that provides redaction capabilities.
  - Ability to redact portions of audio while leaving the rest intact
    - Example: redaction of a crime victim’s voice
Redaction: Video Recordings

- Computer software is available that provides redaction capabilities.
- Ability to redact portions of video while leaving the rest intact
  - E.g., blurring, blacking out portions of video, removing sections of video
Redaction: Audio and Video Recordings

• Technology
  • Software for blurring video can be difficult to find using the term “redaction”
  • Find software with tools, including: Gaussian blur, Mosaic blur, and motion tracking
  • Most video software will handle audio redactions, too

• Cost
  • Many cost-effective options available for audio/video software
  • May take many working hours to redact audio/video (time decreases with practice)
RESPONDING TO A REQUEST
Written Response

• A written request requires a written response, if the request is denied in whole or in part
  • Reasons for denial must be specific and sufficient
    • Purpose is to give adequate notice of reasons for denial and ensure that the custodian has exercised judgment
  • Reviewing court usually limited to reasons stated in denial
  • Availability of the same records from other sources generally not a sufficient reason
    • Must inform the requestor that denial is subject to review in an enforcement action for mandamus under Wis. Stat. § 19.37(1) or by application to district attorney or Attorney General

• May respond in writing to a verbal request

• A request for clarification, without more, is not a denial
Timing of Response

• Response is required, “as soon as practicable and without delay”
  • No specific time limits, depends on circumstances
• DOJ policy: 10 business days generally reasonable for response to simple, narrow requests
• Penalties for arbitrary and capricious delay
• Bottom line: When the OOG informs you of a pending public records request, work to gather responsive records as soon as practicable
Notice Before Release

- Notice to record subjects is only required in limited circumstances
  - Required by Wis. Stat. § 19.356(2)(a)1:
    - Records containing information resulting from closed investigation into a disciplinary matter or possible employment-related violation of policy, rule, or statute
    - Records obtained by subpoena or search warrant
    - Records prepared by employer other than the authority about employees of that employer
    - “Record subject” can try to prevent disclosure in court
  - Required by Wis. Stat. § 19.356(9):
    - Officer or employee of the authority holding state or local public office
    - “Record subject” may augment the record to be released

- Attorney General opinions regarding notice: OAG-02-18 (Feb. 23, 2018); OAG-07-14 (Oct. 15, 2014)

- Courtesy notice
PERMISSIBLE FEES
Costs

- Actual, necessary, and direct costs only — unless otherwise specified by law
  - Copying and reproduction
  - Location, if costs are $50.00 or more
    - Location costs themselves must be $50 or more: An authority cannot combine location costs with other costs to reach the $50 threshold
  - Mailing/shipping to requester
    - Others specified in Wis. Stat. § 19.35(3)
- Authorities may not charge for redaction costs
- Prepayment may be required if total costs exceed $5.00
- Authority may waive all or part of costs
- Recommendation: Keep careful records of time spent working on requests

  • Mandamus action may be filed by:
    • Requester, with or without attorney
    • District attorney
    • Attorney General
  • Authority may be ordered to release records
  • Other remedies

• Wis. Stat. § 946.72: Tampering with public records and notices

  - No destruction until the request is granted or until at least 60 days after the authority denies the request
  - 90 days if requester is committed or incarcerated
  - No destruction during enforcement action
Other Records Retention Statutes

- Wis. Stat. § 16.61: State authorities
- Wis. Stat. § 19.21: Local authorities
  - Generally, a 7-year retention period for most records
  - The Public Records Board (PRB) may set shorter retention periods

- General Records Schedules (GRSs)
  - State agencies are bound to follow
    - Unless they opt out and adopt corresponding RDAs within 12 months
  - Local government units may opt in

- Agency-specific Records Retention/Disposition Authorizations (RDAs)
  - Deviate from the GRSs to meet specific agency needs
PUBLIC RECORDS LAW QUESTIONS?
Short Break!
The Open Meetings Law
Public Policy

“In recognition of the fact that a representative government of the American type is dependent upon an informed electorate, it is declared to be the policy of this state that the public is entitled to the fullest and most complete information regarding the affairs of government as is compatible with the conduct of governmental business.”

—Wis. Stat. § 19.81(1)
Essentials

• Generally, the open meetings law requires that all meetings of governmental bodies:
  • must be preceded by public notice; and
  • must be publicly held in a place that is reasonably accessible and open at all times to all members of the public;
    • except in limited situations in which a closed session is specifically authorized.
GOVERNMENTAL BODIES
Governmental Body

- “‘Governmental body’ means a state or local agency, board, commission, council, department or public body corporate and politic created by constitution, statute, ordinance, rule or order . . . .” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(1).

- Translation:
  - Any kind of collective governmental entity (state or local level).
  - Created by constitution, statute, ordinance, rule or order.
  - Without regard to what that entity is called (i.e., a board, commission, committee, council, etc.).

- Includes purely advisory bodies, governmental corporations, quasi-governmental corporations, and formally constituted subunits

- Generally, a governmental body does not include a group of administrative staff of a government agency.
  - Highly fact-specific issue.
Governmental Bodies: Creation

• “[C]reated by constitution, statute ordinance, rule or order . . . .”
  • Refers not to the kind of power wielded by a governmental body, but rather to how the body is created.

• How to determine whether a body is created by constitution, statute, ordinance or rule?
  • Look it up.

• How to determine whether a body is created by order?
  • An order can include any directive — whether formal or informal — that creates a body and assigns it some governmental responsibilities. See 78 Op. Att’y Gen. 67 (1989).
  • Such a directive may be issued by any governmental official or entity that has the power to delegate the governmental responsibilities in question.
  • Note: This is a very fact-specific standard, so there are no bright-line rules.
MEETINGS
Meeting

“Meeting’ means the convening of members of a governmental body for the purpose of exercising the responsibilities, authority, power or duties delegated to or vested in the body.” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(1).

- Not limited to face-to-face gatherings or physical presence together.
  - Examples: telephone calls, emails, virtual meetings, other electronic forms of communication
Meetings: The Showers Test

  - A meeting occurs whenever:
    - Purpose requirement:
      - Members convene for the purpose of conducting governmental business
    - Numbers requirement:
      - The number of members present is sufficient to determine the body's course of action
        - Includes negative quorums
Meetings: “Purpose” Requirement

• “Conducting governmental business” is an expansive concept that is not limited to formal or final decision making.

• “Conducting governmental business” includes:
  • preliminary decisions
  • discussion
  • information gathering
  • interaction among members is not required

Meetings: “Numbers” Requirement

• This number is not necessarily equal to a majority of the membership or to a quorum of the body.

• A sufficient number of members to determine a body’s course of action can refer to either:
  • the affirmative power to pass an action or
  • the negative power to defeat an action
    • Sometimes referred to as a “negative quorum”

• Fact-specific depending on the governmental body
Meetings: “Convening” of Members

- Members must convene for there to be a meeting
- Not limited to face-to-face gatherings or physical presence together
- Includes situations in which members are able to effectively communicate with each other and exercise the body’s authority
- If members communicate without physically gathering together, the key question is: To what extent do their communications resemble a face-to-face exchange?

• A “convening” of members can occur through written correspondence, telephone and video conference calls, emails, and other forms of electronic messaging.

• Technology creates risk of private communication that should be held at public meetings
  • Important to keep in mind with increase in use of virtual workplace platforms

• To minimize the risk of violations, caution is advised:
  • Use only for one-way transmissions
    • Do not send replies or minimize their distribution
    • If a reply is needed, do not reply to all; reply only to the sender
  • Do not use for debate/discussion or polling/voting
    • Could be construed as a “walking quorum”
  • Limit the use of attachments/editing among members
Meetings: Serial or “Walking” Quorum

• “Walking” Quorum: A meeting resulting from a series of gatherings among body members

• Elements of a “walking” quorum:
  • A series of gatherings among groups of members
  • Each smaller in size than a quorum
  • Agreement to act uniformly
  • In sufficient number to control the body

• The “walking” quorum concept is intended to prevent circumvention of the law through the use of an agent or surrogate to obtain collective agreements of members outside a public meeting.

• Practical Tips:
  • “Walking” quorum issues are complex and fact-specific
  • Consult with your legal counsel
General Notice Requirement

• “Every meeting of a governmental body shall be preceded by public notice . . . .” Wis. Stat. § 19.83(1).

• Notice must be communicated at least 24 hours before the meeting to:
  • The public
  • News media that have filed a written request for notice
  • The official newspaper for the community in question
    • If none, then a news medium likely to give notice in the area

• The meeting notice must reasonably inform the public of the time, date, place, and subject matter of the meeting.

• Presiding officer is legally responsibly for ensuring notice requirements are met
  • Tasks may be delegated but presiding officer liable for any violations
Manner of Notice to the Public

- Notice to the public must be made using one of the following methods:
  - Posting in at least 3 public places likely to give notice to persons affected
  - Posting in at least 1 public place and on the body’s Internet site
  - Paid publication in news medium likely to give notice to persons affected
Content of Public Notice: Subject Matter

• How detailed must a notice be in describing the subject matter of a meeting?
  • The Wisconsin Supreme Court has said that the description must be reasonable under all of the relevant circumstances of the particular case. State ex rel. Buswell v. Tomah Area Sch. Dist., 2007 WI 71, 301 Wis. 2d 178, 732 N.W.2d 804.

• Relevant circumstances include:
  • The burden of providing more detail
  • The degree of public interest in the subject
  • Whether the subject is non-routine

• Notice should not use generic, uninformative subject-matter designations, such as:
  • Old or new business
  • Agenda revisions
  • Miscellaneous business, etc.

• Notice should include the subject matter of any contemplated closed session
Open Session Requirements

• “[A]ll meetings of all state and local governmental bodies shall be publicly held in places reasonably accessible to members of the public and shall be open to all citizens at all times unless otherwise expressly provided by law.” Wis. Stat. § 19.81(2).

• “Open session’ means a meeting which is held in a place reasonably accessible to members of the public and open to all citizens at all times . . . .” Wis. Stat. § 19.82(3).
Open Sessions: Reasonably Accessible

• Three aspects to public accessibility:
  • Physical location in the community
    • Meetings should be held within the body’s geographic area
    • May not be held on private premises unless open & reasonably accessible to public
  • Room size and acoustics
    • Must be reasonably calculated to accommodate all citizens who wish to attend
    • Body members must take reasonable steps to make it possible to be heard
  • Physical accessibility
    • In open session, the room should be unlocked
    • If doors must be closed due to noise, notice should be posted inviting entry
    • Accessibility for people with disabilities
      • State bodies must meet in facilities people can access w/o assistance. Wis. Stat. § 19.82(3).
      • Statute not applicable to local bodies, but they must provide reasonable access
Reasonably Accessible: Covid’s Impact

• The type of access that constitutes reasonable access during pandemic circumstances may be different from the types of access required in other circumstances.
  • Whether a meeting is “reasonably accessible” is a factual question determined on a case-by-case basis.

• The Attorney General has long advised that bodies may convene their meetings via telephone or video conference.
  • However, courts have not resolved the question of whether the practice of convening meeting in this matter is always permissible.
  • The public must be provided an effective way to monitor the meetings.

• Notices must include instructions on how to attend the meeting remotely, including any required call-in number and/or log-in information.

• Best practices:
  • Bodies should be mindful that it may be burdensome, infeasible, or impossible for some members of the public to attend in person or remotely.
    • Bodies should facilitate reasonable access to meetings for such individuals.
      • For example, bodies could hold meetings in person with a remote option.
    • Bodies are encouraged to retain practices adopted to promote transparency during the pandemic to the extent those practices increase accessibility.
  • Bottom Line: The more access to meetings, the better. Providing multiple options—even post-pandemic—to the public to attend meetings helps to fulfill the purpose of the open meetings law.
Open Sessions: Citizen Participation

- The open meeting law ensures the right to attend and observe open session meetings.
- The law does not require a body to allow the public to speak or actively participate.
- However, the law permits a portion of an open meeting to be set aside as a public comment period.
  - Public comment periods are not required.
  - Such a period must be included on the meeting notice.
- During a public comment period, a body:
  - may receive information from the public and
  - may discuss any subject raised by the public but
  - may not take formal action.
Open Sessions: Recording

- Wis. Stat. § 19.90:
  - Bodies must make a reasonable effort to accommodate anyone who wants to record, film, or photograph an open session.
  - Recording or photographing activities may not disrupt the meeting.

- The open meetings law does not require governmental bodies to permit citizens to record closed sessions.
Open Sessions: Voting

• Unless otherwise specifically provided, no secret ballots may be used except for electing officers of the body.

• Any member may require a roll-call vote.
Open Sessions: Record Keeping

- All motions and roll call votes must be recorded and preserved
  - Law does not specify a timeframe in which such records must be created.
  - However, it is advisable that motions and roll call votes should be recorded at the time of the meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable

- Voting records must be open to public inspection to the extent required under the public records law
- The open meetings law does not itself require bodies to keep formal minutes of meetings
  - However, minutes are often required by other statutes for certain types of bodies
CLOSED SESSIONS
Closed Sessions: Required Procedure

- Every meeting must begin in open session
- To go into closed session, a motion must be duly made and carried in open session
- The vote of each member must be recorded
- Before a vote to go into closed session, the presiding officer must announce:
  - The statutory exemption(s) authorizing the closed session and
  - The nature of the business to be considered
Closed Sessions: Scope and Attendance

• Limited scope
  • When a governmental body is in closed session, it must limit its discussion:
    • to the specific business for which the closed session was authorized and
    • may not take up any other matters

• Attendance
  • A body has discretion to allow anyone to attend a closed session
  • No duly elected or appointed member of a body may be excluded from any meeting of that body—whether closed or open
  • A member also may not be excluded from a meeting of a subunit of the body, unless the body has a rule to the contrary
Closed Sessions: Voting

- Under a prior version of the law, the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that a body can vote in closed session, if the vote is integral to the authorized subject of the closed session. State ex rel. Cities Serv. Oil Co. v. Bd. of Appeals, 21 Wis. 2d 516, 124 N.W.2d 809 (1963).

- More recently, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals indicated that a body should vote in open session unless a closed vote is expressly authorized. State ex rel. Schaeve v. Van Lare, 125 Wis. 2d 40, 370 N.W.2d 271 (Ct. App. 1985).
  - The Wisconsin Court of Appeals did not discuss Cities Service Oil Co. and the older decision remains binding precedent.

- DOJ advises bodies to vote in open session unless it would compromise the purpose of the closed session.
Closed Sessions: Authorized Subjects

• The specific subjects for which closed sessions are authorized (exemptions) are set out in Wis. Stat. § 19.85(1).

• The following slide includes some commonly used exemptions; it is not a complete list. For a more complete discussion of this topic, see DOJ’s Wisconsin Open Meetings Law Compliance Guide.

(a) Deliberating about a case that has been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial trial or hearing before the body.

(b) Considering dismissal, demotion, licensing or discipline of a public employee or the investigation of charges against the employee.

(c) Considering employment, promotion, compensation, or performance evaluation data of a public employee.

(d) Considering specific applications of probation, extended supervision or parole, or considering strategy for crime detection or prevention.

(e) Deliberating or negotiating the purchase of public properties, the investing of public funds, or conducting “other specified public business” whenever competitive or bargaining reasons require a closed session.

(f) Considering sensitive personal information that would be likely to have a substantial adverse effect upon an individual’s reputation.

(g) Conferring with legal counsel about strategy related to litigation.
ENFORCEMENT
Enforcement: Options and Penalties

- The open meetings law may be enforced by the attorney general, local district attorney, or by a private relator. Wis. Stat. § 19.97:

  - Penalties:
    - Civil forfeiture of $25 to $300 per violation for any member of a body who knowingly attends a meeting held in violation of the open meetings law or otherwise violates the law.
    - A member is not liable for attending an unlawful meeting if the member makes or votes in favor of a motion to prevent the violation from occurring. Wis. Stat. § 19.96.
    - Members of a body who—acting openly and in good faith—seek and rely upon the advice of the body’s official legal counsel may not be found liable for any violation.

- An action taken at an unlawful meeting may be voidable if:
  - the court finds that the public interest in the enforcement of the open meetings law outweighs the public interest in sustaining the validity of the action.
