General information

Open Pantry Food Marts of Wisconsin has offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone responsible for the death of Andrew M. Nehmer at the Open Pantry Food Mart on South Park Street in April of 1986.

Nehmer was a 20-year-old University of Wisconsin – Madison student working as a store clerk when he was stabbed to death during an armed robbery at the Open Pantry Food Mart, located at 2201 South Park Street. His body was found in the early morning hours in the store’s parking lot on Tuesday, April 22, 1986.

ANYONE HAVING INFORMATION SHOULD CONTACT

Town of Madison Police Department
608-210-7262
After hours at (608) 661-8477

Wisconsin Clearinghouse for Missing & Exploited Children & Adults

1-800– THE-HOPE (1800-843-4673)